SUGGESTION TO THE PRESIDENT.

PHILIP H. SHERIDAN, Major General in e regular army, West Point graduate d life time Democrat, ought to be imme iately removed from the position that he cupies as commanding officer of the partment of the Gulf.

Any man who would damage "my pol y" in the way he is doing is unworthy JOHNSONIAN indorsement. For instance, publish a letter this morning, address by him to Governor THROCKMORTON, Texas, which does not by any means inforce the idea of "immediate readmis on." The hero of the Shenandoah does t seem to think that the murder of col ed people and the arrest, upon ground s pretexts, by officers of local courts, Union soldiers, are exactly the kind of anifestations which indicate a return of ion feeling.

PHIL. SHERIDAN certainly ought to be lieved by JUBILEE EARLY, or in some ner manner so disposed of as to prevent s producing the kind of reports he does. he is continued in his present position uch longer we are afraid it will be some ne before Texas and Louisiana are presented in Congress.

ONE BRIGHT SPOT.

Union ideas and attachments are not ex ict in the South. And probably they e increasing, as the following item of ws from one quarter indicates.

The Chambers, Georgia, Tribune, says: "One our adjoining counties, Randolph, is now one st Union League society, and even here in ambers county, we hear of societies forming d being largely attended."

That is the way to reconstruct. If it had t been for the unfortunate vanity of r. JOHNSON, who courted the honor of ing the whole thing himself and by him lf, it is likely the work of sound recon uction would have been advanced rther than it is. Give the Southern ople time, and hold out no false hopes to eir miserable, deceitful politicians, and ings will come right. Kill off all these se hopes, by plump Republican majori s in the elections, and the Southern nion people will have hopes that will mulate them to organize and act for aithful reconstruction.

CANVASS THE DISTRICTS.

The game of the colonizers may easily be evented. Let the Vigilance Committees each election district in the county ap int block committees, particularly in e cities and boroughs, and make a orough canvass of the voters. Take wn the names of all legal voters, and as ar as may be the party for which they ll vote. By this means, the attempted auds by illegal assessments will be pre nted, and it will further enable the com ttees to get out a full vote of their re ective districts. Two days remain in hich to do the work, which is ample ne. Commence to-day.

A FRANK ADMISSION.

The Post of this city fairly gives up, al ost before the commencement of the mpaign. It admits, in an editorial ar le yesterday, that HIESTER CLYMER will defeated by thirty thousand majority. nowing how strong and deep the pleos rian stratum of Democracy, in certain unties was, we only calculated on out twenty-five thousand. The cal lation of the Post expands our confi nce to the point where certainty of suc ss is assured.

NOT SO.

The Post of yesterday announces that neral MAHAN, of the famous Ninth assachusetts Regiment, who is at pres t addressing JOHNSON-CLYMER meet gs, was a delegate to the late Soldiers d Sailors' Convention. This, we are in med, is not true. General MAHAN hap ned here en route to or from home, hav g been West on business relating to the nian movement. His sympathies are t with the mass of the "Boys in Blue."

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE.—Major Gen al W. W. AVERILL did good service ring our late civil conflict, as a cavalry icer, and has just been appointed consul neral of the Canadas. He supercedes r. POTTER, of Wisconsin, a man who s not in the war, and yet was the first to ow how to conquer the South. It was who first taught Congressional fire ters from the other side of MASON and XON's line that Western men were not be trifled with nor bullied. He made e most demonstrative of them—ROGER . PRYOR—back down ignominiously; d in doing that, he gained as great a ctory as Fort Donelson.

WE cannot too often urge upon every ter the imperative duty of casting his te in favor of loyal principles and loyal en next Tuesday. With marked unanimity we patiently suffered unpar leled sacrifices in putting down the re llion, and in demonstrating our ability preserve our free institutions. Let us ith the same unanimity assert at the bal t box our ability to gather the fruits of r victory over treason.

THE anti-war record of HIESTER CLYMER akes him adverse to every truly loyal an. Not only has he not repented, but has repeated his disloyal offenses by de aring that he would not, if he could, ange any vote of his life. Remember is on the day of election and vote accord gly.

A WONDERFUL ESCAPE FROM SCANDAL.

GEORGE WASHINGTON in his time had enemies and maligners. The halo of unalloyed renown with which more than sixty years of apotheosis have contributed to surround his name was not beheld by his cotemporaries.

So with every other great man that the country has produced. No matter how able and how pure, they have each and every one been villified and scandalized. With a single exception. There can be instanced a solitary character of absolute greatness, which, in its negative as well as positive qualities, defies calumny or even criticism. Once, in the early part of the career which culminated in his undimmed glory, a feeble effort was made to libel and to crush him. To use the homely words of ABRAHAM LINCOLN, "he seemed to shed the envy and abuse of his enemies like a duck's back sheds water." That man was U. S. GRANT.

To-day he is the only public individual through the broad expanse of this vast country whom an unlicensed liberty of speech and writing finds absolutely impregnable. Southern papers cannot produce a hostile phrase to launch against him. Loyal papers North bestrew his path through life with unfading flowers of eulogy; and even Copperhead papers have to endorse his few but forcible utterances, for the simple reason that what he does speak is concrete common sense, and the most comprehensive expression of practical patriotism.

If the Post of this city, for example, could find a flaw in him it would weary its readers with perpetual dwelling on so prized a theme. But it cannot; and has, instead, to print extracts from the two or three letters he has written and give them in the form of established and invaluable aphorisms. It did so yesterday; not that what the great Captain says would tend to help the cause the Post advocates, but for the reason that his words are a platform on which people of all shades of opinion feel they can securely stand.

Truly no man of whom history gives us any record has stood on such a pinnacle of fame and favor. It is well that we know he has the mental and moral balance to sustain himself on the great height to which he has attained.

"TIRED OF POLITICS."

It is no great wonder, but as long as the bogus Democracy cling to the negro as their political capital, they will keep up the political agitation. They are responsible for the noise, confusion and bad-feeling. They are mad because they are not able to cajole Congress and the people, as they have the President, and therefore they make this rumpus in hope of preventing Congress from quietly and justly reconstructing the States in the Union. They do this for the same reasons—party reasons—that made them hinder and prolong the war, lest poor Mr. LINCOLN and his administration should have the credit of bringing it to a close.

If you are tired of politics, there is one way of getting permanent relief, and that is by giving the agitators such a defeat, on Tuesday, as will keep them quiet for the next two years.

BLOWN UP!

There is nothing left now of the Philadelphia Convention. WEED and SEWARD have withdrawn from it, and without it is Senator COWAN, no man can be found who is willing to speak of the affair except to ridicule or denounce it. Not in the history of politics has there been such a miscarriage. Mr. RAYMOND, who drew the Address, was first to draw out. He was first to perceive the coming ground swell. Others who took part in the performance followed him in rapid succession, so that to-day Mr. COWAN is about the only one who talks gravely about the "National Union Party," a thing that is so dead that its carcass does not even emit a smell.

TAKING SIDES.

The Sandusky (Ohio) Register states that Thomas P. Finnefrock, the Democratic candidate for Congress in that (IXth) District, has declared that he would take his seat in the Rebel House, if one should be organized on the plan foreshadowed by Andrew Johnson.

Now that they have begun to take sides, will General SWEITZER let us know for which Congress he considers himself running? Not that he has the ghost of a chance of being elected to any, but some people may be curious to know what he thinks concerning an event, which, though impossible, he seems to delude himself may happen.

"THAT'S ALL THERE IS ABOUT IT."

In describing the New Orleans massacre, Mr. COWAN said: "A negro jostled a white man when a riot took place—and that's all there is about it." But the official report of the Board appointed to investigate the transaction declares it was a premeditated butchery of loyal men, white and black. Mr. COWAN's version was fully equal to the average of his statements and arguments on the stump. Some men can't blush.

WHO DOES NOT FEEL IT?

We ask, what patriot does not in his heart respond to the sentiment clothed in the burning words of MURDOCH, the actor and scholar? Speaking of his dead boy he said:

> "I have a son sleeping out yonder, beneath the sods of Spring Grove, and rather than have his bones and those of a traitor rest together in a common grave, I would burn them, and scatter them to the four winds of heaven."

IT is an important fact that should not be forgotten, that the policy of Congress contains nothing to which the President has not in some way or another committed himself. He has deserted the principles it embraces, however, and courted the company of traitors; but we don't think that that fact justifies an honest man doing likewise.

THE JOHNSON party holds that one rebel in Carolina is better than two loyal men in Pennsylvania. The Union Republican party holds that one loyal man in the North is quite as good as one traitor in the South. It is not expected that any Northern man who feels himself inferior to Southern rebels will vote the Union Republican ticket.

THE moral sentiment of community is decidedly hostile to the coward and deserter, and so is the law of Pennsylvania disfranchising the latter. The polls should be carefully watched in every district, so that every man who has lost honor, social standing and all the elements of manhood by deserting from the army, may be prevented from voting.

EXAMINE well every ticket—beware of fraud. The hitherto well known character of the enemy for perpetrating frauds at the ballot box should put every voter on his guard. Tickets should be prepared before hand so that no mistakes can occur.

ARRANGE your business before Tuesday so that you may be able to devote that day, or a portion of it at least, to your country. A slim vote and bare majorities may prolong the contest, but a full vote and overwhelming majorities will settle it forever.

THE coalition embraces all the elements of treason and copperheadism, while the Union Republican party embraces none that were disloyal during the war. It is true that "birds of a feather flock together," and that they will flock together next Tuesday at the polls.

EVERY man should prepare his ballot in time, so as to save trouble on election day. No ballot should be polled without being carefully examined to see that the enemy has not been tampering.

LET every man give one day to his country—and let that day be next Tuesday. Vote early, and employ the rest of the time in getting out the infirm and disabled.

EVERY loyal vote not cast aids the enemy, for it is one vote less to overcome. Hence the importance of getting out every vote that it is possible to get out.

Office Seekers Disappointed.

The very few changes being made in the office holders continues to create considerable disappointment among the office seekers, many of whom are leaving. Important changes in the offices in Boston, Cincinnati and St. Louis have been impending for several weeks.

Commissioner Cooley Removed.

The President to-day removed D. N. Cooley, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and appoint Lewis V. Bogy, of St. Louis in his place. The change is to take place on the 1st of November.

The Pension Bureau.

There are several applicants for the position of head of the Pension Bureau.

Public Lands.

Returns received from the local land office at East Saginaw, Michigan, show that 30,427 acres of the public lands were disposed of during August, as follows: With Agricultural College scrip, 17,502; with military warrants, 5,992; under the homestead law, 2,057; sold for cash, 4,876 acres.

The Cabinet.

The Cabinet meeting to-day was attended by all the members, excepting Secretary Seward, who was prevented by sickness from being present. The meeting lasted several hours. Apart from the Cabinet meeting nothing of especial interest transpired at the White House to-day.

Examining Surgeons.

The following appointments of Examining Surgeons were made by the Commissioner of Pensions to-day: Drs. Julian H. Axtell, Tuscola, Michigan, and James Mise, Catlettsburg, Kentucky.

Resumed His Duties.

Assistant Secretary of Treasury Chandler returned to-day, and entered on his duties, thus negativing at once the statement that he had tendered his resignation.

Case of Jeff. Davis.

Although Chief Justice Chase is understood to hold the opinion that more legislation is needed before he can hold a term of the Circuit Court in Virginia, Judge Underwood has expressed a willingness to convene the District Court at Richmond in November. In view of this, Jeff. Davis's counsel were confident to-day that the trial of their client would take place next month.

Blair Declines.

Montgomery Blair, who has been nominated for Congress by the Conservatives of the Fifth Maryland District, has decided to decline it. The District is now represented by Benjamin G. Harris, but the delegates have nominated a new man in his place.

The Colorado Gold Mines.

The Surveyor General of Colorado writes the land office that the gold yield in that territory will be very large this fall, new and valuable mines having been opened. He estimates it at ten millions a year.

WASHINGTON, October 5.

ILLNESS OF SECRETARY SEWARD.

Assistant Secretary of State, F. W. Seward, has been appointed Secretary of State ad interim, owing to the sickness of his father, who, without waiting to recover fully from his previous attack, devoted himself too closely and for many hours a day to his official duties. The appointment of his son thus relieving him from business cares, will afford him a better opportunity to recover his health.

THE CHOLERA.

Several reported cases of cholera have occurred in this city within the past few days.

TAX ON RUBBER BOOTS AND SHOES.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that rubber boots and shoes are subject to the tax of five per cent. on articles of wearing apparel, manufactured or produced for sale, from India Rubber. The tax on boots and shoes manufactured of leather, is only two per cent.

REPORTS OF NATIONAL BANKS.

Some 1200 of the quarterly reports of National Banks, out of the 1660 now due, have been received by the Comptroller of the Currency. They show the banks to be in a good condition. The reports are remarkably correct, and exhibit a very general compliance with the provisions of the currency act.

ADMIRAL DAHLGREN.

Rear Admiral Dahlgren has been ordered to take passage from New York on the first of December, to take command of the South Pacific squadron.

ARTICLES FOR THE PARIS EXPOSITION.

Information has been received here that every railway and express company out of Chicago agrees to transport Western offerings and collections for the great Paris fair to New York free of expense. "The Commissioner for Missouri says Chicago will be the headquarters for the Northwest, and everything should go to that centre for transportation or shipment. Part of the collection of Illinois was on exhibition at the Chicago fair. It is stated that public interest in that section is much excited on this important subject.

FINANCIAL.

A comparison of the September with the October statement of the public debt shows a decrease of twenty-two and a third millions, it now being $2,573,337,000. The amount of coin in the Treasury is over eighty-six millions, or an increase of nearly ten millions, while the currency has decreased fourteen and a third millions, the amount of both coin and currency being over one hundred and eight millions.

Intentions of Napoleon as to Mexico.

NEW YORK, August 5.—A Paris letter of the 18th ult says: In consequence of some recent news received from Mexico, on the 15th of the present month, the Emperor of the French, who had already dispatched Gen. De Castelnau, his Aide de Camp, to Maximilian, sent him an order by telegraph to come back to St. Cloud, where his instructions are to be revised and modified. Marshal Randon, the Minister of War, was present at the interview, which, I am assured, was of the most important character. According to a version generally accepted, based, I understand, not merely upon the critical condition of affairs in Mexico, but also upon the firmness of attitude recently assumed by the Cabinet at Washington, the intention of the French Government is to bring about a speedy settlement of the Mexican question. He is to get rid as soon as possible of this perpetual subject of solicitude and annoyance. To this effect the fleet of transports collected at Brest and Cherbourg for the purpose of embarking and bringing back to France the first instalment of troops, is to be largely increased, so as to be capable of carrying the whole of the French contingent, and to evacuate Mexico all at once. All that will remain of the French army there will be a small garrison in each of the harbors, where the Custom House duties conceded to France by Maximilian are to be collected. Such are, I am assured, the measures just adopted in Cabinet council in reference to Mexico. I must say, however, that the Paris Patrie is not quite of that opinion, and asserts, on the contrary, that Gen. De Castelnau's mission has not for its object to put immediately an end to the intervention of France in Mexico.

Billiard Match in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, October 5.—The billiard match for the championship of Missouri, the champion cue and two hundred and fifty dollars, came off last night between A. H. Harrison, of St. Joseph, champion of Missouri, and Philip J. Pierce, of St. Louis. Pierce won the game by forty-eight points.

From Ottowa, C. W.

OTTOWA, C. W., October 5.—It is reported upon good authority that the delegation to England on the Confederation, consists of Hons. Castier and Longevin, of Lower Canada; McDougall, of Upper Canada.

Three Colonels of Engineers have arrived, it is supposed, with the view of fortifying the city.

What Does it Mean?

The Washington correspondent of the Rochester, New York, Democrat makes this statement: "I learn from a reliable source, cognizant of the issuing of orders, that by the beginning of the next session there will be 12,000 troops belonging to the regular army concentrated in this Department. There are about 5,000 now. The others are ordered here under the pretext of re-organizing the regiments, &c. What does it mean?

The Herald's Ottawa, Canada, special says: The Fenian scare in Canada is subsiding, and the camps are being broken up. The periodical frights have not assisted the cause of confederation with the mass of the people, and on the contrary, many begin to comprehend that annexation would be the surer relief. The Lamirande extradition case still occupies public attention. The Governor General, Lord Monck, is being severely blamed for his participation in the affair.

FRAUD EXPOSED.

Copperhead Colonization in the Twenty-First District.

Stupendous Scheme Exploded.

The Conspirators Caught in Their Own Snare.

An attempt has been made to make it appear that the Johnson Clymer-Cowan men of the Twenty first Congressional District have not attempted colonization,—and the denial has been made that while they have charged fraud, or intended fraud on the Union men, they were not themselves deep in a stupendous scheme of the kind to defeat the Hon. John Covode. On this important question there are those whose positive testimony will convince the public mind of the utter falsity of the charges made against the Union men of that District, while at the same time it will show the motive the Copperheads had in preferring it. The Copperhead organs in Pittsburgh have made a public statement to the effect that an individual named Charles B Strain, residing in this city, who, while on a recent visit to Derry, in Westmoreland county, on "private business," discovered in that village a nest of eight men, who voluntarily informed him that they had been colonized and assessed there in order that they might help defeat the Copperhead candidate for Congress, and that as soon as Strain saw "the situation" be induced one of the party, whose name is given as Goodwin Meade, to make an information for conspiracy against his companions, and that in default of one thousand dollars bail they were committed to jail by a Greensburg Justice of the Peace. Like many more "weak kneed inventions of the enemy"—on the eve of this coming important election, this statement has already been refuted, and though intended to deceive, like a well executed counterfeit, must utterly fail in the object it was designed to accomplish. The reaction which has already taken place in Westmoreland county will extend throughout the Twenty-first Congressional District, and the discomfiture of the Johnson-Clymer-Cowan men is already complete. Like the culprit who on being asked whether he had committed all the crimes laid to his charge, the Copperhead leaders in Westmoreland are compelled to say "We have done worse; we have suffered ourselves to be apprehended." As we have before stated in the COMMERCIAL, two of the Derry party who were locked up in jail at Greensburgh, have confessed that they were brought into the district to defeat Mr. Covode, and the advocates of "My Policy" have been compelled to bail the fellows out of jail lest they should make further damaging disclosures; which, we understand, they threatened to do, unless immediately released. Another of the parties, named Hall, alleged to have been concerned in the so called "conspiracy," and who was not arrested with the others, has since placed himself under the very nose of Mr. Strain, in order that he might be taken into custody, but up to last night the copperheads had shown no disposition to trouble him.

These Copperheads, who expected to astound the district with their allegations, are thus completely flanked in their movements, and those whom they employed to carry out the plot, like the sailor who ran to his captain during a hot fight with the news that the ship was on fire near the powder magazine, are told to "run back and assist in putting it out." The loyal men of the Twenty-First Congressional District are fully aroused on the subject of the election. They have been spurred to greater diligence than ever by this bold attempt at fraud, and have secured evidence of Copperhead colonization in many other parts of the District. We learn that along the Monongahela river, and in the interior of Westmoreland and Indiana counties, worthless characters have been smuggled into different localities, and are assessed in order that they may vote for the Johnson candidates. It is known that in several collieries a large number of men have been set at work until the election is over solely for this purpose. They have been "spotted," however, and in every instance where the law can be enforced against them it will take its course at every hazard.

FROM CANTON, OHIO.

Interesting Meeting of the Ladies' Centenary Association—$75,000 Subscribed to Endow Three Professorships in Mt. Union College—Prosperity of Methodism in Canton—A Noble Church.

Special Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Commercial.

CANTON, O., October 5, 1866.

The Methodists of Canton have done "great things" in this beginning of the centenary month of the Methodistic centenary year. According to the announcement found in the COMMERCIAL (which largely circulates here) the good people of this place and vicinity assembled yesterday, October 4th, in the beautiful church, which has been here erected by the taste and liberality of Methodism, to witness the "doings" and participate in the services of the Ladies Centenary Association of Canton, of which Mrs. E. C. Patterson is President, and Miss Libbie Aultman is Secretary. The exercises commenced at 2 P. M. by the reading, by Rev. E. Birket, and singing of the hymn, "Glorious things of Thee are spoken," &c., after which Rev. W. Cox, D. D., of Alliance, led in prayer. Rev. I. N. Baird, D. D., of Salem, then read the 72d Psalm, and Rev. S. H. Hickman read the hymn commencing "See how great a flame aspires," &c., and after the singing, Rev. H. J. Clark, D. D., of Canton, introduced Bishop Simpson, who proceeded to address the audience in relation to Methodism, and the different objects set forth by the General Conference, and recommended by the Centenary Committee of Pittsburgh Annual Conference, to receive the contributions of the people during the current month.

The address was listened to with great interest, and a telling result was obtained in subsequent proceedings.

At the close of the Bishop's noble address the congregation was called upon for their contributions, when L. Miller, Esq., announced that C. Aultman, Esq., of Canton, contributed to endow a Professor's chair in Mount Union College the sum of $25,000; Lewis Miller, Esq., of Akron, Ohio, contributed for himself and wife the same sum, to endow another Professor's chair in the same institution, and a third chair was endowed by Jacob Miller, Esq. and wife, of Canton, thus adding to the endowment fund of Mount Union College the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars. The subscriptions were continued, with the intention of endowing a fourth chair to be called "The Ladies Centenary Chair," toward which Miss Libbie Aultman subscribed $1,000, and others in smaller amounts until the sum of $2,139 was reached. The following objects received the following sums, viz: The Alliance M. E. Church, $25; Mission House at New York, $10; the Pittsburgh Publishing House, $5, making the entire contributions of the afternoon $77,179.

The result thus far was exceedingly gratifying to the friends of Mount Union College, and the lovers of education and Methodism. The Bishop had not expected to remain for the evening service, but yielded to the earnest solicitation of friends, and so was announced to preach in the evening.

Accordingly, at 7 P. M., a large congregation assembled in the church. The preliminary services were participated in by Rev. J. M. Bray and Rev. E. Birket. The Bishop then announced his text: "As the Father hath sent me, so have I sent them into the world," and proceeded to deliver in his remarkable manner an excellent and effective discourse—admirably adapted to the objects and purposes which were had in view. The audience was evidently deeply interested and affected up to the close of the sermon.

Subscriptions were then resumed wholly in the interest of Mount Union College and the endowment of the Ladies' Centenary Chair, and the amount was increased to $3,433, making the entire amount of contributions during the day for Mount Union College, $78,433; and the entire amount for all objects, contributed at this meeting of the Ladies' Centenary Association of Canton to be $78,473. Thus the Church of Canton, under the pastorate of its able minister, Rev. H. Miller, takes the lead of all the churches in the Pittsburgh Conference, and thus it has built up for itself a monument for the ages more enduring than brass. All honor to the men and women who thus so nobly have responded to the call of the Church in this Centenial year. This gives to the College of Mount Union an endowment, so far, of near $200,000—and it is now expected largely to increase this sum, so that this deserving and able institution may be pronounced a grand success.

The services of the day were closed with the time honored doxology, and the whole congregation, led by the choir, and the grand organ, joined in the singing to the praise of God with hearts full of gratitude for the results of the day, and for what the Lord hath done for His church.

It is fitting to say that the church here, under the administration of its present pastor, Rev. H. Miller, has enjoyed great prosperity, and been successful in accomplishing the spiritual objects for which the church is established, and during this term of service many have been added to its communion. About fifty persons were received into full connection on Sabbath week past. Their church edifice is one of the most beautiful, costly and commodious in the State, and the organ is of very superior tone and power. The arrangement of its Sabbath school room and its library are the best and most complete of any of which we have any knowledge. And for all this Methodism is largely indebted to the munificence of the gentlemen who largely contributed at this meeting. May their recompense be an abundant one, and success still be theirs. H.

The case of Orlando A. Joslyn was up before Judge Barnard in New York, Thursday, in the Supreme Court Chambers. The plaintiff is a stockholder in the National Express Company, and complains of the bankrupt condition of the corporation, and seeks for the winding up of its affairs. He purchased shares valued at five thousand dollars, as he states, under fraudulent representation of certain members of the Company. He now seeks to recover his money. An injunction was granted restraining defendants from disposing of their property in any way other than for the interests of the corporation, and the case came up yesterday on a motion of the defendants to dissolve or modify this injunction. After hearing the argument of the counsel, Judge Barnard reserved his decision.

A Toronto, Canada West, dispatch of yesterday says: Preparations are actively progressing for the trial of the Fenian prisoners captured in June last, at the approaching assizes. The best legal talent in the city has been engaged on both sides. It is understood that M. C. Cameron, M. P., is engaged in behalf of the Fenians.

GRAND RALLY IN BUTLER COUNTY.

Speeches of General Pearson, Colonel Bayne and Others—An Enthusiastic Demonstration.

Special Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Commercial.

BAKERSTOWN, October 4, 1866.

On Wednesday a large meeting of Union Republicans and "Boys in Blue" of Butler county, was held in the woods, four miles from Bakerstown, about ten o'clock A. M. The "lads and lasses" to the number of ten or twelve hundred congregated at the spot chosen, and after selecting a number of officers, Mr. Patterson, of Butler, was called upon and delivered a splendid speech, abounding in telling points. His review of the career of Hiester Clymer was such as to cause several old Democrats who had always voted with the party, to say that they could not vote for a man who had wronged the "Boys in Blue."

Maj Gen. A. L Pearson was then called upon. The General stated that he appeared before them as a drafted man. He had not volunteered to make a speech, but having accidentally heard of the meeting, and wishing to know what the "Soap Mines" were doing in the good cause, he stopped. The General spoke for an hour, and kept the audience in splendid spirits. He was frequently interrupted by shouts of applause. His review of the military career of Hiester Clymer was peculiarly refreshing. He gave a description of that distinguished gentleman when he appeared with the "Bread and Butter Regiment" who went up to Antietam to help the "Boys in Blue." He also reviewed the military life of other distinguished (?) officers.

After General Pearson, Col. T. M. Bayne was called upon, and proceeded to review the constitutional amendment in his usual telling manner. His speech seemed to clear away from the minds of many of his hearers the mists that obscured their true meaning and intent. The Colonel's speech was listened to with great pleasure, and his points were such as will show their might on the second Tuesday of October.

The Colonel was followed by a number of other distinguished speakers, and at a late hour the meeting adjourned, with three hearty cheers for "Geary and Williams." The people of Butler say that they intend to have a grand funeral procession after the second Tuesday of October, as the Democratic party will be 'Coldless,' and the loyal men say they will attend the funeral of the light-infant-ry-man.

White Man's Government.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial.

I am a strong Republican and in favor of a white man's Government, so much vaunted by Copperheads and bread and butter Johnsonites, to hoodwink the ignorant and unwary. Now, let me explain why I, and all good Republicans, are the only true friends to a "white" man's Government. South Carolina, the deeply dyed traitoress sister, has about the same number of white population we have in Old Allegheny. Under the Constitution as it now stands, she would be entitled to five members of Congress, whilst our good old loyal county (God bless her) has to tack on Armstrong and Butler counties to enable her to have two. Now the question is, will this be a white man's Government, should we allow South Carolina to add her four hundred thousand colored people, when she still presumes to call her chattels to enable her to override us? To make this a purely white man's Government, she has no right to a greater representation in Congress than ourselves, and knowing full well her utter worthlessness and disloyalty, I think myself sufficiently benevolent when I grant her voting population equal rights with myself. To grant more, is to presume her superiority.

Before traitors, and sympathizers with treason, take airs upon themselves, let them return to their country the emblems of our nation's glory they have trampled under their feet, after reviling and spitting upon them, and to their mourning friends the five hundred thousand boys in blue, whom they murdered and starved to death in a manner which would put to the blush the most degraded savages of the South Sea Islands. These are my reasons for favoring a white man's government, and, gentle reader, won't you stand shoulder to shoulder with me to extend the same blessing to the people of all our States? To the Boys in Blue, let me say, to send their ballots in the direction of their bullets, and to mourning friends let your ballots be counted as wreaths of laurels cast upon the graves of the dead and precious departed ones. Clymer told his crowd the other night, that he was "the true friend of the Boys in Blue." Well then, so was Vallandigham, for they both voted against appropriating one dollar to keep them from starving. Truly a precious pair of friends they were to the "Boys in Blue." "A friend in need is a friend indeed." Remember him at the polls. T.

A New York dispatch says: General Dix will depart on his mission to France on the 21st, and the Naval Office is again an object of contention. Col. William A. Ludlow and Gen. Charles Graham each have influential friends at work to procure the nomination.

A Washington special to the Chronicle says: It is obvious that the Fenian leaders are now bringing a strong pressure to bear upon the President relative to the future action of the Government toward their proposed renewal of the war on the Canadian border. It is admitted, even by those who share the President's confidence, that these remonstrances are being listened to with close attention, and it is a fact that the audience given the principals has lately consumed most of the odd hours of the Executive. The assurances of the political strength to be given the Administration following the non-intervention proposed are said to be the most alluring.

The Herald's Washington special says: G. B. Lamar, of Savannah, Georgia, is here urging his claim to a large amount of cotton seized by the Government. His object appears to be to secure Executive or Departmental action in his favor, thus keeping it out of the Court of Claims, before which tribunal the first step in the proceedings would require an oath that he had never participated in the late rebellion.

Authentic intelligence, it is said, has been received going to show that the French forces to be withdrawn from Mexico are to be replaced by volunteers raised and equipped on French soil, and which are to be known as the Army of Mexico. In this way Louis Napoleon hopes to maintain a foothold in the country, and there is now no doubt but that he will do so, unless the administration exhibits more backbone upon this subject than it has hitherto done.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided not to remove any competent clerk on political grounds. He has also announced that his clerks may have five days leave of absence to go home and vote.

At a dinner party given two or three weeks since by Mr. Seward, Secretary Stanton was the only member of the Cabinet present. This is considered evidence of Stanton's apparent defection from the extreme programme.

Mrs. Mary Andrews died at Strasburg, Franklin county, on the 22d ult., at the advanced age of one hundred and five years. The Chambersburg Repository says: With what respect and awe should poor humanity look upon such a duration of life. Born two years before the end of the French and Indian war, four years before the famous stamp act was passed, fifteen years before the Declaration of Independence; thirty-eight years before the death of Washington, fifty-one years before the war of 1812, one hundred years old at the outbreak of the Southern Rebellion. What a long, long, weary pilgrimage!

On Sunday, the 23d ult., two boys named Rosensteel and Ruffner, were engaged in gathering chestnuts, near the old American Furnace, Armstrong county, and a difficulty sprang up between them, when Ruffner threw a stone at Rosensteel, striking him on the head, killing him almost instantly. Ruffner is about fourteen years of age and Rosensteel about seventeen.

The National Hotel, in Plumer, was totally destroyed by fire on the night of the 3d. The hotel was owned by J. S. McCray, of Petroleum Centre, and was not insured. The loss on the building and furniture is estimated at $5,000. The fire was the work of an incendiary.

Joshua Aurchinson, of Greensburg, was severely injured on Tuesday noon, at the depot, by the bursting of a small cannon, which was being fired as a salute to Hon. Hiester Clymer, on his arrival from Pittsburgh. His right leg was considerably lacerated and burned, and his pantaloons torn to shreds.

Charles F. Laughead, a brakeman on the Pennsylvania Railroad, was killed Wednesday night at Springville, by being knocked from the train. It is supposed he was making an observation when his head came in contact with some obstacle as the train passed.

The Pithole Record, of Wednesday, announces the destruction, by fire, of the Morey House. It says: "This splendid building, erected a year ago, at a cost of $57,000, was burned yesterday between nine and eleven o'clock, A. M. It was the work of an incendiary, very evidently, as the house was unoccupied at the time. The house was entirely burned down. The furniture had been removed some time previously. This was, at one time, one of the grandest hotels in the oil regions, and the price per week for board was fifty dollars. Thus has been obliterated one of the most magnificent monuments of last year's speculation. Suspicion was fixed upon one James Leeson as the incendiary, from the fact that he had previously made threats of burning it, unless he was paid what was owing him by Morey. It seems he had been kept out of money due him for labor. He was also seen prowling around the house just previous to the breaking out of the fire. He was overtaken by Mr. Kelley and Constable King, on the road to Titusville, and brought back to town and taken before Justice Highberger for examination. The evidence against him was of such a nature as to warrant the Justice in committing him to jail for trial.

The Reform Movement—Further Arrests of Fenians—No Money for Mexican Bond Holders—Triumphant Return of the Prussian Troops—Address of the King—The Outbreak at Palermo—Condition of the Bank of England.

NEW YORK, October 5.—The steamer Persia, which left Liverpool on the morning of the 22d, and Queenstown on the 23d, arrived this afternoon.

On the 20th a delegation from Liverpool Chamber of Commerce went on board the Great Eastern and presented an address to Captain Anderson and his coadjutors in the work of laying the Atlantic cable. An invitation was given to the officers engaged in the great work to a banquet given in their honor on the 1st of October, which was accepted.

The Prince of Wales, on the 20th of September, formally unveiled a statue of the Queen erected at Aberdeen, amidst much enthusiasm.

The report of the National Reform Union states that since its formation in April, 1864, nearly eight hundred public meetings have been held under its auspices, and one hundred and fifty branch associations have been established. An open air reform demonstration was to take place in Liverpool on the day the Persia sailed.

The British harvest is expected to be less discouraging than was supposed.

Further arrests of prominent Fenians were made in Liverpool on the 21st., and large quantities of arms and ammunition seized. It was expected other arrests would be made, as the principal detectives of the borough were actively searching for suspected persons.

The weekly returns of the Bank of France show a decrease in the cash of 5,900,000 francs.

The Paris Moniteur of the 20th says the President of the Mexican Finance Committee at Paris, informs the holders of Mexican rentes and obligations that no remittance having been made to him by the Mexican Government for payment of the arrears and coupons due on the 1st of October next, this payment will be deferred.

The Patrie denies the rumor that the President of the Mexican Finance Committee had tendered his resignation.

A Berlin dispatch of the 20th says the triumphal entry of the Prussian troops into this city took place this morning, according to the order settled in the official programme. The greatest popular enthusiasm prevailed. In replying to a congratulatory address from the Chief Burgomaster, His Majesty thanked the inhabitants for their splendid reception, which, he stated, was in every way worthy of the occasion, declaring at the same time that the same time that the troops, not he, should be the object of their ovation. Numerous orders were distributed, and a large number of promotions made. Bismarck was raised to the rank of General, and was appointed commander of his Landwehr regiment. The Crown Prince and Prince Frederick Charles were invested with the Order of Merit, together with portraits of Frederick the Great.

An amnesty has been proclaimed for all persons who, up to the 20th inst., have been convicted of high treason or other offenses against the Crown, resistance to the State authorities, violation of public order, offenses committed by the press in infringement of the press law of May 12th, 1851, and for infractions of the ordinances of March 11th, 1851, regulating the right of public meeting.

A royal decree has been issued instituting a cross of honor in commemoration of the campaign of 1866.

The London Times says the outbreak at Palermo may trouble the Italian authorities, but is not calculated to create any serious alarm.

The Paris Moniteur says that the revolutionary attempt has been made by men belonging to the Republican party, seconded by bands of rioters. A Florence dispatch of September 20th says: The following official statement has been published here: Advices from Sicily announces that communication with Palermo has not been restored. It is asserted that no acts of violence or incendiarism have been perpetrated in that city. A few instances, however, of fire arms having been discharged had occurred in other parts of the Island. The best feeling prevails.

From a dispatch received at Milan from Palermo, it would appear that on the 13th, the numerous armed bands, which infest the mountains in Sicily, united, and made during the night so bold an attack upon the city, that they were enabled to take up strong positions in various parts of the town. At first a panic prevented the National Guard from co-operating with the garrison, and on the 16th the firing was still kept up with great energy on both sides, without decisive results.

The Italian Government has given orders for the immediate dispatch to Sicily of the garrisons of Leghorn, Ancona and Pareto, comprising together fourteen battalions. Bad weather at sea rendered communication with Palermo very difficult, but it was said 50,000 troops had been landed, and that the insurgents retired before them.

RUSSIA.—On the 15th inst. the execution of Demetri Karakozow took place in the Smolenska Plain at St. Petersburg.

LONDON MONEY MARKET.—The weekly bank statement shows an increase in bullion of £248,739 and in the reserve of notes £120,215.

The London Times' city article of the 21st says: The bank return this week is satisfactory in all its features, and compares well with the corresponding date of last year, when the rate of discount was down at 4 per cent., and when, instead of a general absence of speculation, such as is now observable, there was an extent of inflation beyond all former parallel. It may be assumed that should the reserve and bullion experience any further considerable augmentation during the ensuing week, a reduction of the rate of discount, to 4½ or 4 per cent. will be adopted.

The Markets.

LIVERPOOL, September 22.—Breadstuffs—Richardson, Spence & Co and Henry Jump & Son, report flour in good demand at full prices: western State, 26a28s. THE OUTBREAK IMMINENT

Secret Rebel Societies North and South.

Northern Copperheads in the Movement.

Gen. Sheridan Concentrating His Troops

NEW YORK, October 5.—The Tribune's New Orleans special says: Some important disclosures will soon be officially made public in reference to secret rebel societies which permeate the entire South. These organizations have branch circles in New York city and the West. That in New York is said to number 50,000, principally composed of men who served in the rebel army. Each Circle has a different name. Some are known as the "True Sons of the South," others as the "Knights of Arcola," and all are well armed with the most improved weapons, ready at a moment's notice, should a favorable opportunity arise, to renew the struggle for the lost cause. One of the chief members of this organization, now in prison, is said to have made important disclosures.

General Sheridan is concentrating troops in this city for important purposes, which will soon be made apparent.

Nine cases of whipping of negroes have been recently officially reported in the Parish of Bienville. One old woman seventy years of age received four hundred lashes.

The following explains itself: New Orleans, September 20th, 1866. To his Excellency, Gov. Throckmorton.—I have just received from Col. Mason the report on the affair which occurred at Brenham, Texas, on the 7th instant, and have directed him to notify Brevet Major Smith, that he must not permit himself nor any of his men to be arrested. I respectfully request of your Excellency to do all in your power to allay the excitement there, and I will do all in my power to satisfy the ends of justice in every case, but I doubt if much justice could be done in a community which compels our officers and soldiers to remain in side of the defenses thrown around their camp. I will have an additional and thorough investigation of this affair, if possible, to ascertain if any soldiers were guilty of the affair; but Col. Mason is clearly of the impression that those designated for arrest are innocent. Respectfully, your obedient servant,

PHIL. H. SHERIDAN,
Major General U. S. A.

The Times' New Orleans special says: A large number of Justices in different parishes have sent certificates to Gen. Sheridan that they are unable to execute the laws protecting freedmen in collecting wages for the last year's service. General Grant's order is being applied to offenders, and they are arrested and held in military confinement.

GEN. DIX GOING TO PARIS.

The Post says the report that Gen. Dix will go to Paris on the 27th of this month is premature. His departure is likely to take place in November or December.

The Convention has adjourned sine die. The New York Liquor Dealers' Society, which will co-operate with the liquor dealers of the State, will meet next Monday, to inaugurate a campaign against the Radical prohibition men.

A Copperhead Meeting in Philadelphia Breaks up in a Row.

PHILADELPHIA, October 5.—A large and enthusiastic meeting of Conservatives and Democrats was held to-night. Hon. Hiester Clymer addressed the crowd before Independence Hall at length. After speaking of the momentous political struggle about to be decided, he said he had traveled from the western to the eastern boundary of the State, and had everywhere been greeted by crowds. With full knowledge of the responsibility, he said, I assert that there is no more doubt of our victory on next Tuesday, if there be an honest ballot, than of the existence of a organization called the Democratic party. [Applause.] Fellow citizens, you now behold men who, in their devotion to the Union, have risked the strength and comfort. [Cheers for Andrew Johnson.] I stand before the people of this State, the representative of the Union, of the Constitution and the enforcement of the laws, and of the white race of this land. [Cheers.] It matters not whether the destruction of this Union be effected by war or legislation; whether it be the open act of the rebels or the insidious and unconstitutional abuse of power by the Radicals. The Democratic party stands ready to thwart and prevent them. [Applause.] We stigmatise as traitors those who attempt to withdraw from or to exclude a State, seek to accomplish a virtual destruction of the American Republic [cheers and applause], and I declare its spirit is in danger, though its form be preserved, when Yankee tinkers inconsiderately and at random modify and amend it. At the close of the meeting of conservative men in front of Independence Hall, a disturbance occurred, which resulted in the severe wounding of one or two police officers and several citizens. There are different accounts of the origin of the disturbance, which only lasted for a few minutes.

From San Francisco—Late Mexican News.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 5.—A dispatch from Carson, Nevada, last night, says the fusion Democratic and Johnson Conventions have not nominated Winters for Governor and Mitchell for Congressman.

The report of the death of the Mexican Liberal General Diaz is contradicted. Consul Godey received a letter from General Alvarez, dated near Acapulco, September 22, which says Gen. Diaz left the State of Querero in August, with some troops, and went in the direction of Puebla, where four hundred Imperialists joined his ranks. He afterwards surprised and defeated a small garrison at the village of Felye De Hands, and then took the road to Orizaba with 2,000 men.

The St. Louis Fair.

ST. LOUIS, October 5.—The number at the fair to-day was measurably less than yesterday, but still very large. The main feature in the arena was the exhibition of thoroughbreds. For four years old and over, Glendower took the first prize, one hundred dollars; Reward, second, bronze medal. Several fine rings of thoroughbred mares were exhibited, the premiums being divided between Missouri and Kentucky. D. T. Harris & Co., of Springfield, Mass., took the first premium for the best drill press.

Repudiation in Georgia.

AUGUSTA, October 6.—Considerable feeling is exhibited throughout Georgia on the subject of repudiation. It is thought an effort will be made on the meeting of the Legislature in November, to relieve the people from the payment of certain debts contracted prior to and during the late war. The plea urged for repudiation, is the loss of the slaves, and the failure of the crops. The amount of property returned in the State for 1866, is $207,000,000; in 1860, $620,322,777. Loss to the State over $467,000,000.

CITY MATTERS.

Fra Diavolo at the Opera House.

"Fra Diavolo" is the best comic opera that Auber ever composed, though his name will always be more favorably associated with such serious efforts as "William Tell" and "Massaniello." Yet in "Fra Diavolo" there is some exquisitely brilliant music. Nothing could be a more complete elaboration of delicate melody than Zerlina's two principal solos, and Diavolo's serenade in the second act.

The piece is one of the kind that somehow always takes with the public. As a proof of this, we may state that the audience last evening was the largest and most elegant of the week.

We cannot say too much in praise of Miss Caroline Richings's Zerlina. In all the florid passages she was superb; in the bedroom scene pleasingly modest and graceful; in concerted exigencies always commandingly excellent.

Mr. Castle earned new laurels. His pure, fresh, powerful tenor is a glorious development of human faculty to hear and properly appreciate. Clouded as it is in some of its lower tones, the clear chest notes that are brought out by high, sharp calls upon it are sufficient compensation for any fault that we can find.

Mr. Campbell has no chance in "Beppo," and the part could have been better filled by Mr. Peakes. His sonorous basso would have been more useful in the concerted scenes than Mr. Campbell's melodious baritone.

But, as a whole, the opera was admirably given, and delighted one of the most crowded, fashionable and distinguished audiences we have ever seen in the theatre where it was played.

This Richings Opera Company is not to be lightly spoken of. Its presence here and consequent success is a test of Pittsburgh appreciation of the highest order of harmonious art. It immense audiences do not throng to hear them, we can truthfully be charged with a lack of taste and cultivation. There should not be a vacant seat in the house. We are glad to say that hitherto there have been very few.

It is seldom we have a chance to enjoy the sounds of such voices as those of Caroline Richings, Zelda Harrison, Wm. Castle, Sherman Campbell, J. R. Peakes and Edwin Seguin. Let us take advantage of the opera-tunity while it lasts.

This evening "The Doctor of Alcantara" will be repeated. It is one of the pleasantest and most amusing things of its kind that ever was put upon the stage. Any one who misses it loses a great treat.

On Monday evening the performance will be for the benefit of Mr. S. C. Campbell, the most accomplished of American baritones. We are quite sure that he will have an overflowing house.

AGENT FOR COMMERCIAL.—Mr S. W. Johnson, late of the 155th Pennsylvania Volunteers, who lost an arm in battle, is an agent for the COMMERCIAL on the Erie and Pittsburgh Railroad. Mr. Johnson is a very worthy man, and will deserve the patronage of passengers on that road.

THE REBEL FLAG.—A New Brighton correspondent says that the rebel flag was carried in the Johnson-Democratic procession in that town the other day, and that there was not a single soldier who fought for the Union, in the crowd.

MISS. LENA SCRIBA'S CONCERT.—Our accomplished townswoman, Miss. Lena Scriba, will give one grand concert of vocal and instrumental music at Masonic Hall, on Tuesday evening, 16th inst. She will be assisted by her sister, Miss. Eliza Scriba, Miss. Wiese, Mr. Apfelbaum, Professor Bukowitz, Mr. George Fearge and some of the best talent of the Frohsinn Society. This concert will be the first of the season by home talent, and as the young lady under whose auspices it will be given, is held in high esteem, we have no doubt it will be largely attended.

SUICIDE IN SOUTH PITTSBURGH.—A strange suicide took place at Swett's Rolling Mill in South Pittsburgh, on Thursday afternoon. An old man, unknown to any of the workmen, entered the mill, and went to a portion of the building where no one was at work. He there made fast a rope, with a noose in the end, to one of the suspended rails, used for carrying hot masses of scrap iron to the "squeezers." By some means he managed to fasten the noose about his neck, and when he was discovered he was dangling in the air. A little boy passing by discovered the body and gave the alarm. When the workmen reached the spot the old man was quite dead, though he could have been hanging there but a short time. No clue has been obtained to the identity of the suicide as yet.

Republican Demonstration.

A large and extremely enthusiastic meeting of the Union Republican citizens of the Fourth ward, was held last evening on Liberty street, in front of Hare's Hotel. At half-past seven o'clock, Charles W. Robb, Esq., President of the Geary Club of the ward appeared on the balcony of the hotel, called the meeting to order, and introduced Gen. E. M. Lee, of Connecticut, who spoke about an hour. The General reviewed President Johnson's course at considerable length, and closed with an eloquent peroration on the Union. He was followed by Hon. John M. Kirkpatrick, who called upon the Republicans of the ward to make renewed efforts to increase their majority on Tuesday next. Capt. A. W. Tourgee, of North Carolina, was next introduced, and delivered a brief address. The meeting was one of the largest held in this city during the campaign, and the speakers were frequently applauded. Prof. Pope was present, and sang several excellent songs. A brass band was also in attendance.

Eighth Ward Geary Club.

The Geary Club of the Eighth ward met last evening in the School House, and was organized by selecting Barclay Preston, Esq., President, and John M. Killen, Esq., Secretary.

On motion Messrs. John A. Sergeant and E. S. Morrow, Esqs., were appointed a Committee to take charge of the polls on Tuesday next.

Col. Armor announced that a meeting of the Boys in Blue would be held at the School House on Monday evening.

Mr. Killen was then called upon and delivered an address, in which he stated that he felt assured that the setting sun of Tuesday next would carry down with it into dishonored political graves the crushed hopes of more traitors than did the news of the surrender of the rebel army and the occupation of Richmond by the Federal army. He was followed by Stephen M. Ott, Esq., who delivered a brief though stirring speech, after which the meeting adjourned.

Excursion of the Eagle Fire Company.

The members of the Eagle Fire Company, who have been on a visit to Philadelphia during the present week, as the guests of the Vigilant of that city, have been hospitably entertained by the entire Fire Department. On Thursday the visitors made an excursion down the Delaware river, and visited the fleet of iron clads which are anchored at League Island, and upon their return partook of an excellent dinner provided by the Perseverance Hose Company. At the conclusion of the repast, beautiful boquets were presented to each member of the Company. In the evening a complimentary banquet was given at the Ashland House by the Vigilant. Yesterday morning the Eagle steamer was fired up, and her throwing capacities subjected to a thorough test, which proved very satisfactory. The Eagle was built in Pittsburgh, and is one of the handsomest and most efficient machines in the country. The visitors left for their homes last evening at eleven o'clock, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, and will arrive here at noon to-day.

Republican Rallies To-Night.

There will be a grand mass meeting of the loyal Republicans of Liberty, Collins, Peebles and Wilkins townships combined, held this evening at seven and a half o'clock, at East Liberty. Hon. P. C. Shannon, Thomas M Marshall, Esq., Wm. C. Moreland, Esq., and other distinguished speakers will be present and address the meeting. Prof. J. W. Pope, the popular campaign singer, will also be present and entertain the audience with some of his best selections. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will run a special train, leaving the Union Depot at seven o'clock, precisely. As this will be the last grand rally in that district let there be a good turn out.

The "Boys in Blue" of Liberty and Collins townships, will meet at East Liberty this evening at seven o'clock, to attend the mass meeting in Beitler's Square.

The "Boys in Blue" of the Second ward, Pittsburgh, are requested to meet this evening at the School House, to attend the East Liberty mass meeting. All members are earnestly requested to attend. Those having caps, capes or flags, who do not intend going, are requested to return them to the school house, between the hours of five and six o'clock.

There will be a grand Republican meeting under the auspices of the Fourth Ward, Allegheny, "Boys in Blue," held this evening at seven and a half o'clock at the Columbia Engine House, on the corner of Anderson and Lacock streets. The meeting will be addressed by Capt. J. F. Slagle and Thos. T. Everett, Esq.

The last grand rally of the Republicans of the Third Ward, Allegheny, will take place to-night at Gile's Hotel, on the corner of Second and Middle streets, and will be addressed by Capt. Samuel Harper and H. C. Mackrell, Esq.

There will be a Republican rally at the Soda Works, on the Allegheny Valley railroad, to-night, which will be addressed by distinguished speakers.

Public Amusements.

THE FLORENCES AT THE PITTSBURGH THEATER.—If audiences that can scarcely be accommodated are the test of popularity, the Florences may fairly claim to be the greatest favorites that ever appeared in Pittsburgh. Each night that they have played here they have crowded the Old Theater to its utmost capacity. It is a legitimate tribute to the comic power of Mr. Florence and the versatility and genuine talent of his wife. Yet what they have hitherto done is only a foretaste of what we may expect the second week of their engagement. We know of no one who can surpass Mr. Florence in the miscellaneous line of parts he plays, and we should like somebody to tell us who is half as good as Mr. Florence in the exposition of protean burlettas. Both being so good, how can they avoid making a glorious triumph?

THE SWISS BELL RINGERS.—The Spaulding Brothers' Swiss Bell Ringers will appear in some of their unrivalled performances at the Opera House matinee this afternoon, for the benefit of the ladies and children. This evening they will perform at Masonic Hall and make their farewell bow, and we advise those who have not witnessed their entertainment to take advantage of this last opportunity.

TRIMBLE'S VARIETIES.—A matinee for the accommodation of ladies and children is announced to take place this afternoon at this popular place of amusement. A great bill to-night.

THE MATINEE AT THE THEATER.—To-day there will be an afternoon performance at the Theater of "The Sea of Ice." Mrs. Ettie Henderson will appear, and nearly all the strength of one of the best companies we have had here. There should not be a vacant seat in the lower part of the house.

Union Meeting in the Ninth Ward.

A meeting of the "Boys in Blue" and Geary Club of the Ninth ward was held last evening, and was organized by calling Lieut. Fred. Metzger to the chair, and appointing Mr. J. W. Mackrell, Secretary. Addresses were delivered by A. B. Riggs, Esq., of Tennessee, and Captain Samuel Harper, who presented the issues before the people in a very forcible manner, after which the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we, the members of the Boys in Blue and the Geary Club of the Ninth ward, do hereby return our sincere and heartfelt thanks to the loyal young ladies who so patriotically devoted their time and labor in decorating the wagons, so as to enable our crippled heroes to be in the line of procession on the 25th and 27th of September.

Resolved, That we return our thanks to the gentlemen who so kindly volunteered the use of their horses and wagons to carry our members who were unable to walk.

Resolved, That we tender our thanks to the gentlemen who have addressed us during the campaign.

It was also resolved that the club would attend the meeting at East Liberty this evening in force, and the members were requested to meet at the school house at six o'clock.

The meeting then adjourned with three cheers for Geary and Moorhead.

England's Helplessness.

The London Daily News says that the thing which most impresses the world with a sense of the helplessness of England is her utter disorganization,—"disorganization of political parties, disorganization of industry, disorganization of credit, and underlying all and more serious than all, disorganization of ideas. A leading contemporary tells the British public day by day that every nation in the world is waiting for its judgment, and that the Areopagus of Europe is in London, the British public little dreaming meanwhile that communities better educated than itself are looking on its eccentricities with astonishment and pity. The astounding mistakes of judgment into which our governing classes as a body fell during the American war, and to which they clung with tenacity to the last, have left a lasting impression abroad, especially in countries where the condition of affairs in the United States was rightly apprehended from the first."

The Daily News adds, with a glance at social troubles which now seem to be causing universal alarm:

"Heaven only knows how all this dangerous confusion will end, but at present, with administrative imbecility, untaught by recent misfortunes, with classes on the verge of social war, with a million of paupers, and our people still uneducated, we have much to do before we can expect to recover our old power to fascinate mankind, though the skilful irony of the dynastic parties over the water may make use of us as the Roman historian under the empire made use of the German tribes."

The Prospect in New York.

The New York Commercial speaks as follows of the political prospect in that State: Of the general State ticket it seems to be conceded by all parties that the Republicans will make a clean sweep. Still, the Conservatives and Democrats will make a strong fight. It is understood that the German Republicans are casting their interests in favor of Mr. Hoffman for Governor, as a means of overthrowing the new excise law, to which, as a body, they are generally opposed. Indeed, it is whispered that Mr. Hoffman received his nomination on the strength of assurances of his carrying the German vote in this city in such sufficient force as to balance the Republican majorities in the Western part of the State. The Democrats are very quiet about this feature of the canvass, but it undoubtedly enters largely into any calculation of success that they may entertain.

THE TEMPER OF THE SOUTH.

We said the other day, that the South had reached that frame of mind which is the third development of human feeling occurring after the admitted reception of a sound chastisement. It had, as we stated, got to the encouraging period of "the sulks."

The disposition for reconciliation—for affectionate "making up," as it is called, when happening between parent and child or man and wife—seems to be approaching. We see evidences of it strongly manifested in almost all the newspaper exponents of Southern sentiment and policy.

The Charleston News—not six months ago a combination of impervious Palmettoism and rattle-snake venom—is now one of the warmest advocates of the Constitutional Amendment. It says that "My Policy" is a manifest failure, and that submission to the action of Congress is the only judicious course to be followed. The Savannah Republican, the Newbern Times, the New Orleans Picayune and the Bee, adopt the same line of argument, and counsel the Southern people to accept the situation as it is, in good faith and friendly feeling.

This re-assuring appearance of the current of opinion is specially significant when it has the indorsement of leading men and journals of influence in Virginia. That State went into the secession experiment reluctantly. Once in the war—while suffering more from the horrors of the conflict than all the States confederated with her put together—she was the bravest and most unflinching. Mother of Presidents as she has been, and yet may be, she is among the first, through her ablest representatives, to manifest a disposition to return to common sense and show indications of reviving loyalty and a restored spirit of healthy Nationalism.

Only one thing is wanted to ensure to her the confidence and good will of the North. She has among her citizens a man who exercises a commanding influence. A word from him could make her once more a member of the United States, powerful as in times gone by, respected as never before, equal in all respects to her most favored sisters of the section that she fought with so much courage. The man we mean is ROBERT E. LEE. He, in his part of the country, holds a position for good or evil that is only paralleled with us by the unexampled confidence we place in GRANT. If he be the patriot that he is supposed to be, he will not let his opportunity go by.

General WILLIAM C. WICKHAM, one of the best brigade commanders that served under LEE, writes from his home in Hanover county, protesting against the return to power of those who brought on secession and the war. He appeals to the people, North and South, "not to again trust with the management of public affairs those whose incapacity culminated in secession and its attendant horrors." He speaks thus plainly: "I am denounced and held up to scorn because, forsooth, I have given expression to the principles I always maintained—that secession was a crime; and because I have dared to say that disunionism, which first manifested its power in the disruption of the Democratic party at Charleston, and the organization of the BRECKINRIDGE party, and culminated in the overthrow of unbounded prosperity in Virginia and the South, was in great part the work of secession leaders and that the people should not again trust its instigators with the management of public affairs."

If ROBERT E. LEE would but indorse such utterances as these, he might be the Saviour of the States whose partition from the Union he struggled so persistently to effect.

We have accumulative evidence from other quarters of this improved phase of public feeling in the bosoms of our wayward sisters. One thing that begets more confidence in us than any other, is the contempt and derision which they cast on their false, deceitful Copperhead allies. Several of the most able Southern journals lash these traitors of the North in as merciless a way as their worst enemies could desire, and we should like to quote extensively from their columns; but what they all say is best expressed in the subjoined extract from the Norfolk Old Dominion. Since the fugacious and adulterous embezzler FLINT, alias "DRUID," has fled from its office, the Old Dominion has greatly improved in expression. It says of the Democratic party that still maintains a slimy, wriggling life among us:

> "The people of the South have nothing but contempt for these scheming politicians. In the early part of the war, they assured our people that all they had to do was to secede, and they would get all they asked for, and promised all manner of assistance, even to the secession of New York. Not one of their promises was fulfilled. They were false to their own people and section, and through their press counseled us to fight, when they knew it was downright suicide for the South to secede. Yet they urged the matter on; fell down on their knees and worshipped at the shrine of secession, but failed to give one practical proof of their sincerity. Now they talk about their sympathy for the South—hoist the old Democratic flag, and with the old party war cries ringing all over the country, are foolish enough to suppose they can gain the ascendency. In Pennsylvania we see Hiester Clymer, a man who opposed the Government in every possible manner all through the war, running for Governor, with plumes stolen from the Philadelphia Convention decorating the dead carcass of the old Democratic party. It is a foregone conclusion, these men and their 'party' will be badly beaten at the polls in the coming elections, and the South left out in the cold, as usual. The Radicals take advantage of this, and from our weakness and the foolishness of the sleepy leaders of the old Democratic party of the North, are constructing their empire of political power. If this thing is to continue, we shall urge the insertion of another section in the proposed Constitutional Amendment, putting it forever beyond the reach of any Northern Democrat, of the Vallandigham and Wood fraternity, to hold an office under 'any State, or the United States Government.' It is enough to have our throats cut by our enemies, without undergoing torture from our professed friends."

It gives us hope when we read such articles as these in contemporaries which were once the most ardent promoters and supporters of rebellion and national disintegration. The Richmond Whig goes quite as far or farther, and even the Examiner, most reckless and virulent of sheets, seems to gleam with a dawning ray of nationality. Discussing the policy of the Administration, it confesses that the South has suffered in consequence of the course pursued toward the Congressional Amendment, and protests against its being made a scapegoat for the sins of the President. "It is true," observes the Examiner, "the South has demanded representation; but that was because the President said it was entitled to be represented. It is true that the South has elected members and sent them to Washington: but that was because the President advised us to do so. When those members were not received, they quietly returned home, and their constituencies accepted the decision against them—not without sorrow, but with an absence of angry excitement. After all we cannot regard the Amendment as such a very hard bargain."

We might multiply quotations of the same kind almost indefinitely; but we have given enough to show how the tide is turning, and we cannot but hail the augury that it affords us with joyous anticipation.

IT should be remembered that the National credit is at issue in the present contest. Upon the arrival in England of the news of the Philadelphia JOHNSON Convention, the price of rebel bonds advanced. Should the coalition formed by that Convention succeed in the coming elections, the price will still further advance, because of the probability there will be of the rebel debt being assumed by the Federal Government. Such an assumption would, of course, vastly increase our indebtedness, and materially impair our credit. Every man who desires to maintain the Federal credit should vote the Union Republican ticket.

FEARFUL MUTINY ON A UNITED STATES VESSEL.

One of the most terrible mutinies in the annals of nautical history is reported to have occurred on board a United States vessel, between Fortress Monroe and Savannah. From the time of leaving port it was observed that a portion of the crew and some of the lower grade of officers were inclined to be insolent and neglectful of duty, gathering together in little groups, by themselves, and indicating by looks, tones and gestures that some evil design was brewing among them. In the morning of Friday, as they were spread in different parts of the vessel, some in the armory, some near the wheel, some in the Captain's cabin, and most of them on deck, their signal was given, and the mutiny suddenly burst out. The conflict was desperate. Guns, revolvers, cutlasses and handspikes were freely and fatally used by both sides. The scene was terrific and the issue was sometimes doubtful. But two or three companies of troops, one of them colored, rushed up from below, and speedily overpowed the mutineers, and drove them down the gangway in confusion and terror. We regret to add that the Captain of the vessel was shot by one of the desperadoes, just as the hatchways were being shut down upon them.

The scene that presented itself to the eye immediately after this sudden and terrible struggle was shocking beyond description. The deck was covered with the mangled bodies of the dead and wounded, blood yet warm was running over the clean white planks and streaming from the scuppers, while the guns and all the deck stowage was in the utmost confusion. And there lay the still bleeding form of the tall and manly Captain, who had through all the struggle given his orders with the utmost calmness to his men while, with them, dealing death blows to the infuriated mutineers.

When the terrible conflict was over, and the vessel saved from the murderous hands of the mutineers, now safely secured below, it became necessary to set the ship to rights for proceeding on her course, which had unavoidably been interrupted during the confusion of the horrid hour. The officers and crew went about their work with a will, clearing the deck, making the disordered rigging trim and taut, and putting the ship from stem to stern in sailing order. But in the midst of their work the second officer, who had come into command by the Captain's death, startled the whole ship's company by the proposal to release the mutineers at once and place them at their old posts in the management of the vessel. Instantly the silence of terror and guilt below deck was broken by a wild cheer of joy, mingled with frantic expressions of menace and triumph. The remonstrances of the faithful crew and soldiers, uttered after a moment of mute amazement at the proposal, only brought upon themselves the name of mutineers from the lips of the new Captain. But they were firm in their determination to keep the planks between them and the bloody insurgents below, till the ship should get into port, and the case be submitted to the proper court for trial.

The name of the vessel is, The United States. Next Tuesday is the day set down for the hearing of the case.

No occasion has ever been presented in the history of the nation when the duty of voting was more imperative upon every citizen that it is at present. For the first time in this country has the President attempted to usurp the functions of the legislative branch of the Government, and thereby destroy the only organ of the people through which they express their voices in the legislation of the nation. It is therefore the duty of each and every citizen to so vote next Tuesday that the rights of their Congress be sustained.

THE slanders of the Democratic organ in this city upon the soldiers and sailors who attended the great Convention here, have neither been rebuked nor disavowed by the opposition candidate for Congress in this District, although we have challenged him to do it. The only conclusion that can be arrived at is that Gen. SWEITZER, who seeks the votes of such men, approves and encourages those vile attacks upon his former comrades.

SOLDIERS should remember that ANDREW JOHNSON said that with the army and navy he could have made himself dictator—meaning that the soldiers and sailors were so much his slaves that they would have aided him to revolutionize the Government by force. There is not much in that fact to commend him to their regard.

INFLUENCE OF THE UNITED STATES ON EUROPE.

All intelligent letter writers concur in testifying to the direct and powerful influence which the United States are having on the affairs of European countries. In England a great political revolution is at hand. It will probably be peaceful, for the people can obtain what they want without resort to arms. The inspiration comes from America. The newspapers point their readers to what America has done by free suffrage and in creating an army of a million of men, fighting a long, bloody war to a successful issue, and dissolving the army without disturbance to society, the elements melting away and absorbed in the vast body politic as noiselessly as snow flakes before the warm sun of spring. A few weeks since 200,000 Englishmen met at Birmingham and gave three cheers for the United States, and resolved that they would have manhood suffrage. These workmen of Manchester determined to outdo their brethren of Birmingham. Liverpool is to follow, then Leeds and York and Dublin. In every town and village there are nightly meetings, and next winter Lord DERBY and Mr. DISRAELI will be asked to enfranchise several millions of people, and if they refuse, there will be such an uproar as England has not seen since 1688. The people of Germany are demanding unity. The example of the United States is before them. The millions of Germans in America are in close correspondence with their brethren of the Fatherland. The events here have set them to thinking; and in Italy, even in Rome, is felt the reverberation of the ideas which have become vitalized by our victories in the field and the emancipation of slavery. Wherever you go in Europe the example and achievements of the United States are talked about but more thought of.

THE hate by the JOHNSON Democracy of the Union soldiers has a strong resemblance to that by the rebels throughout the war. The Pittsburgh Post stigmatised them as "disunionists" and "bummers," and the National Intelligencer refers to the Pittsburgh Convention of Soldiers and Sailors as "an usurping and revolutionary body." A party that select such men as HIESTER CLYMER for standard bearers, are perfectly consistent in expressing such sentiments.

GEN. GEARY not only fought against treason from the beginning to the close of the war, but he saw his own son, a gallant soldier, fall dead at his feet in battle. During all that time CLYMER was at home, aiding the enemy by his undisguised sympathy for their cause, and by fighting loyal men and measures in the rear. Can any loyal men hesitate as to how he should vote?

THE Governor of Pennsylvania has the care of thirty-eight hundred orphan children of Union soldiers killed in battle. To whom will our people commit that care at the coming election? GEARY'S record during the war gives every assurance that his tenderest sympathies would be enlisted in such a duty, while CLYMER'S leaves incontrovertible evidence that he could not be trusted.

EVERY man supporting Congress now was loyal during the war, while every traitor and rebel sympathizer during the war supports the President. The man who desires to be in good company will be with the loyal supporters of Congress, while he who associates with evil companions will assuredly be found with the traitors who support the President.

IT is not to be forgotten that HIESTER CLYMER, by his votes, declared that every loyal man in Pennsylvania who entered the armies of the Republic to aid in putting down treason, incurred the penalty of being disfranchised, and that every soldier who enjoyed the right to vote in the army did so against the protest and vote of CLYMER. It is not within the range of reason to suppose that any respectable portion of our returned heroes have any idea of voting for their consistent enemy.

CRIME IN RICHMOND.

In an editorial of the Richmond Times we find a doleful account of the moral condition of the negroes. No doubt it is bad enough. Larceny is said to be the common offense, as the negroes are very numerous and many of them very destitute of the means of subsistence. But we turn to the local column of the same paper and find the following report of the business in the Mayor's Court:

Case first, stealing, color not mentioned; prisoner remanded for trial. 2. Desertion of wife and adultery; white; remanded. 3. Knocking down a woman with a chair; white; sent to prison. 4. Stealing wagon wheels; black; remanded. 5. Fighting in the street; negro woman; remanded. 6. Uttering a forged will; colored woman; discharged, with the remark of the Mayor, "that there had not been the slightest evidence adduced to attach suspicion to her." 7. Cutting affair; white; done in a fight; prisoner discharged, as justifiable. 8. Poisoning a family of colored people; accused black; discharged, "there being no evidence to sustain the suspicion of their guilt."

The reader can judge, from the above, of the comparative morals of white and black people among the lower orders in Richmond—both bad enough, and neither, we trust, to be taken as a fair sample of the general character of the white or colored population of that city.

The ceaseless harping on the bad effects of emancipation, which the editors indulge in, must be attributed to something else than the facts.

CONCILIATORY—VERY.

Our Southern friends and brethren give us some remarkable evidences of their amiable temper and trustworthy intentions. How delightful it would be, to have them inaugurated as law-makers of the country, according to the President's policy. We give our readers a sample of the sweet and loving style they employ when speaking of our Northern people.

On the morning of October 1st, the editor of the Richmond Times (Oct. 1, 1866, not 1863) awoke in a pleasant frame of mind, and after looking over his Northern exchanges, utters out of the fullness of his heart such amiable and conciliatory sentiments as the following:

> "Constitutional arguments addressed to the howling Northern mobs are pretty much like rhetorical appeals to infuriated grizzly bears."
> "The great city of New York has more brain, heart, patriotism and decency than can be found in all the gutters of Radicalism north of the Potomac."
> "Foolish, narrow-minded Radicalism looks not beyond a day or night of hate and passion."
> "That hate and jealousy which have frequently been meanly levelled at it by the fools and fanatics who have at times gotten into power at Albany, and sought like mousing owls to strike at and bring down the great eagle towering in his pride of strength."
> "But wealth, brain, decency and refinement, have been too potent for the Radical dogs and jackals."
> "While the storm of madness and blind rage has swept the provinces and minor cities of the North,"
> "The city of New York has stood sternly and heroically unmoved amid the general decadence of popular virtue and patriotism."
> "Boston, bide-bound in its self conceit, purse-proud in its wealth, sinful in its self righteousness, and ridiculous in its pretensions of superior wisdom and Godliness, is simply contemptible when we view her politically, socially and morally by the side of New York. Philadelphia, called by way of burlesque, 'the City of Brotherly Love,' in intellect, dignity and decency, is an odious pigmy by the side of the great Free City of the Western hemisphere, in all that dignifies and ennobles the metropolis of a vast State. The world respects and honors New York; it laughs at, and despises the meanness, bigotry and fanaticism of Boston and Philadelphia, which are no more than brawling gossiping little cross road villages compared to the liberal and whole-souled city which flings wide her gates to the commerce and civilization of all Christendom. In the march of ideas, New York is a century ahead of the two radical cities to which we have alluded, and if there was some asylum for crazy towns and villages, Boston and Philadelphia ought to be sent there and kept in straight jackets until they manifest cerebral improvement and returning sanity. The scabies of radicalism has infected every city of the North of any importance except New York."

Nothing but the ten politically righteous men of the WOOD family has saved New York city from this brimstone shower. Whether the apology for such language as the above is due to New York "or the monkey," is not clear.

Gen. Moorhead and the Working Men.

The following letter, written by a working man, and published in the Workmen's Advocate, of this city, refutes certain charges brought against General J. K. Moorhead, our candidate for Congress, and exposes their falsehoods:

PITTSBURGH, September 25, 1866.

To the Editor of the Workmen and Soldiers' Advocate:

SIR:—I see you copied two articles from the Pittsburgh Republic into your paper about Gen. J. K. Moorhead's conduct during the time of the cotton factory riots, and you have also made some severe comments, which might do Gen. Moorhead injustice. The article of the Republic charges him with being principally instrumental in prosecuting some factory girls and other persons for riot, and having them tried and convicted. Would it not have been easy to have shown from the records of the Court whether he prosecuted any one or not, and to show exactly what he did do.

The Republic makes these charges when it knows there is no truth in them. Gen. Moorhead's name does not appear in any of the riot cases, nor did he have any connection with the cotton factory riots. His mill was burned down before the riots took place, and he therefore could have had nothing to do with them. The Republic makes charges of what it knows to be entirely untrue, if it knows anything at all, for the purpose of exciting the working men. What is the history of Gen. Sweitzer on any subject affecting the workingman? Has he got any? Yes. A life-long advocate of free trade, according to the doctrine of the most ultra Democracy—a free trade that would stop every mill and workshop in the country, and throw our millions of workmen and mechanics out of employment—a free trade which, under the New York monopoly of merchandising, would enrich that city and bankrupt the country. Do you want to send a free trade man to Congress to occupy the seat of a workingman, and workingman's friend like General Moorhead, who has employed more workingmen and mechanics than any man in the West? We want a man in Congress just now whose record we do know, and Gen. Moorhead's record is part of the history of Pittsburgh for twenty-five years. If any spot or stain remained on Moorhead's skirts, Sawyer's soap would wash it all away far easier than the Republic could prove any one of its charges against Moorhead. Workingmen and soldiers, do not be deceived into voting for the South and free trade, as you surely will if you vote for Clymer and Sweitzer.

The New York Herald on Cowan.

The New York Herald rebukes Senator Cowan for not stating truly the issue before the people. We quote: "He presents it as the issue between Johnson and Stevens; but it is no such thing. Stevens was defeated upon all his propositions of Southern negro suffrage, Southern confiscation and Southern disfranchisement, and the plan adopted by Congress is substantially President Johnson's plan of restoration, chapter and verse. Mr. Cowan must know, and in common fairness ought to admit, that it is not Thaddeus Stevens, but the Constitutional Amendment of Congress that is before the States for their ratification. Mr. Cowan, a few days hence at all events, will discover that the people of Pennsylvania understand this nice distinction between the schemes of Stevens and the plan of Congress; and so we dismiss Mr. Cowan."

The Cotton Crop and Speculation.

Wright's Circular per the Java, says the accounts this week from nearly all parts of the cotton growing regions, have been more discouraging than any yet received. Neill Brothers say great and general injury has been done during the past three or four weeks by rains or worms, or both, in some parts of nearly every cotton State, except the more northerly ones, and whatever may have been the prospects or possibilities heretofore, a large deduction will have to be made for these disasters. This circular predicts a breakdown in the great speculative mania here, unless it is supported by a stronger movement at Liverpool than appears probable while stocks in Europe are so heavy.

ANOTHER phase of the Mexican complication is, Juarez has sold to some English capitalists the Tehuantepec route, but that Maximilian refuses to recognize the bargain. Thereupon, it is said, the purchasers threaten English intervention, based on enormous English claims: also, that a large number of the French and Austrian officers will remain in Mexico to assist in re-organizing the Imperial army which Maximilian is rapidly massing together. Letters from that country assert that the empire being located in the wealthiest and most populous portions of Mexico, can defy the assaults of the petty guerrilla chiefs for years to come. All these reports are good until others get into circulation, which will be "in a very few days."

THE CORN CROP.—The Cincinnati Commercial says: Ten days more of the fine weather we have enjoyed for a week past will put the corn crops in Ohio beyond all danger of injury by frost. Aside from the damages done by the late heavy rains—and this, except in fields located in low lands near rivers, is nominal—the crop will be among the most prolific ever harvested in Ohio. In the extreme northern counties, where the early flint varieties are mostly planted, the farmers are very busy in cutting and shocking the corn. Very little of this has yet been done in the central and southern counties, where the varieties planted require more time to ripen. Many of the fields, on wet lands particularly, are quite green, but ten days of moderate dry weather will put these out of danger. It is the impression that the damage to the corn crop by the freshets has been much exaggerated, and that, weather favoring, most of that which was given up as hopelessly lost, will be harvested in fair condition.

CURE FOR NEURALGIA.—Some time since we published, at the request of a friend, a receipt to cure neuraligia. Half a drachm of sal ammoniac, in an ounce of camphor water; to be taken a teaspoonful at a dose, repeated several times, at intervals of five minutes, if the pain be not relieved at once. Half a dozen different persons have since tried the receipt, and in every case an immediate cure was effected. In one, the sufferer, a lady, had been affected for more than a week, and her physician was unable to alleviate her sufferings, when a solution of sal ammoniac in camphor water relieved her in a few minutes.—Alta Californian.

THE N. Y. Tribune gives notice that if its correspondents accept "any Goverment employment or stipend," they will be "dismissed" from its employment. Judging from the selection the Government is making, the aforesaid correspondents stand in very little danger.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

In Terre Haute, Indiana, a few days since, the artesian well of Mr. Rose, at the depth of 1,312 feet, commenced flowing oil of the best lubricating quality, causing much excitement.

The Lake of Agnano, in the Neapolitan territory, so famous for its savory fish, threatens to become a fishless sheet of water like the Dead Sea, not from an excess of salt, but through the agency of that mischief brewing botheration called Vesuvius. A subaqueous irruption from that dread mountain has engendered gases of such a mephitic nature, at the bottom of the lake, that the poor things rush to the shore and die. The banks are swarming with the dead carcasses.

In the New York market, we learn, apples are arriving very freely, and the market is so fully supplied that they are slow of sale. Ordinary to good varieties are offered at $3 50 per barrel. We find it stated in various quarters that fall apples are plenty and good in most parts of New England, and it is said that the supply will be sufficient to satisfy the home demand. In different sections of Connecticut, Massachusetts, Vermont, and New Hampshire the yield is an average one. A great proportion of the farmers still have enough for their own use and some to spare.

The decision of the Attorney General upon the application of Southern planters and factors to have the regulations relative to the collections of the cotton tax changed, is understood to be final; and for the present, therefore, or until Congress itself can change the law, the collection of the tax will have to proceed in the manner originally agreed upon, and in the form that it is now being carried out. The entire memorial of the planters is rejected by the Attorney General, as is also a request they made to centralize the entire South into a single collection district.

Advices from Galveston report additional arrivals of German emigrants in that State, who intend making it their home, and to proceed with the cultivation of cotton.

A New Orleans letter says: "Factors are still talking down the crop—the estimates running generally from one and a quarter to one and a half million bales. It is hard to say, however, what it will be, as present receipts are no criterion. Planters having but few hands are putting all their strength to picking, and are also holding back their cotton, in the hope that the late law regarding the payment of the internal revenue "will be modified."

A Washington dispatch says: Special telegrams report sales of 5-20 bonds in London at 70, with a large supply in the market. The latter fact would probably be sufficient to depress the bonds to the low figure given and the depression would be aided by the advance in gold on this side to 49. I will here mention that bankers are in almost daily receipt of the foreign markets by 1 P. M., while the press reports do not appear at all until next day. At any rate they have not done so this week. At so important a period as this, when cotton is advancing at the rate of 1/8@1/4 penny a day and bonds falling at a proportionate rate, the press reporter at London should certainly have activity enough to be even with the business men who surround him.

PERSONAL.

—A private Secretary of the late President writes that Mr. Lincoln "composed somewhat slowly and with care, making few erasures or corrections, and, indeed, being quite tenacious of forms or expressions which he had once adopted. It was then his custom to read his manuscript over aloud, 'to see how it sounded, as he could hardly judge of a thing by merely reading it.'"

—A Brussels paper asserts that the Empress Charlotte, whether she remain at Miramar to await the Emperor Maximilian, as some assert, or whether she return to Mexico, will not visit Brussels. The day after the departure of the Empress from Paris for Miramar, MM. Jules Van Praet and Conway, two of the testamentary executors of the late King Leopold, left Brussels for Miramar, to confer with her Majesty on the subject of the deceased monarch's will. By law the executors have a year and a week from the date of the death to perform the office. It was to obtain the approval of the Empress to the steps already taken that these gentlemen visited Miramar. Up to the present the work of the executors has been slow and embarrassed. Their mission appears likely to be as long and difficult as that of M. Dupin, the executor of Louis Philippe. The difficulty is principally in the precautions required to prevent the publicity of the will, which is reported to contain, besides general dispositions and numerous special legacies, some political considerations of very grave import.

POLITICAL.

Pennsylvania.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Commercial.

ALTOONA, October 5, 1866.

Hon. L. W. Hall addressed the largest meeting ever held here, last night. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed. R.

The Waynesburg, Greene county, Republican, says:—The resignation of Mr. H. Smith, of his positions as Postmaster at Hunter's Cave in this county, and as the Assistant Assessor of the 11th Division, 24th District of Pennsylvania, was received too late last week to be inserted in our whole issue. We announce now that these documents have been tendered to their respective departments, Mr. Smith preferring the proud position he now occupies, to that of sinking his manhood for office.

Under the caption, "Help for Clymer," the Indiana Register says: "One of our fellow townsmen visited the city of Pittsburgh a few days ago, and had a conversation with J. C. Laffum, a Democratic candidate for the Legislature, who supposing our friend to be a cop., made the following assertion: There is one thing that will greatly help Clymer in the coming election, which is that he has pledged himself to use his influence to have the present Temperance law repealed. He was somewhat taken back when he found out he was talking to the wrong man."

Richard Vaux, Esq., of Philadelphia, who was the second choice of the Allegheny county Democracy for the gubernatorial nomination last March, is now stumping Eastern Pennsylvania for Clymer. The Harrisburg Telegraph, of Thursday, says of him: Dick Vaux made a speech in the court house last night to the admiring copperheads of Harrisburg. In the course of his remarks, Dick said that if Geary was elected Governor of Pennsylvania there would be civil war in every city, borough and township in the State. Dick, like Senator Wallace, threatens, but the old game of traitor threatening is played out. And as Dick has thus alluded to "war" it reminds us of the part his great grandfather took in the war for American Independence. In 1777 a committee of safety was formed in the city of Philadelphia for the purpose of correcting the machinations of certain tories, and of forcing traitor sympathizers with the British crown either to leave the lines of the Continental army or desist from their acts of treason. Among those thus charged with toryism, was one Richard Vaux, the great grandfather of the Dick Vaux who now audaciously avows his sympathy for the lost cause of the Southern Democratic traitors. The following paper shows how Vaux, the elder traitor, was constrained to loyalty:

"I, Richard Vaux, do hereby declare upon my honor that I will not do any act or anything injurious to the United States of America. Witness my hand at Philadelphia, 6th day of February, 1777. RICHARD VAUX.

Outside indorsement: Parole of Richard Vaux.

Blood will tell, and the blood which made a traitor of Dick Vaux in 1777 makes a traitor sympathizer of Dick Vaux in 1866. The original, of which the above parole of honor is a copy, may be found in the Auditor General's office.

A San Francisco dispatch of the 4th says: The Union State Convention in Nevada, have nominated H. G. Blasdell for Governor, and D. R. Ashley for Congress. The Democratic Convention have nominated John D. Winters for Governor, and H. K. Mitchell for Congress.

Church News.

The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger writes under date of the 3d instant as follows:

There is good reason for believing that at the grand Provincial Council of the Roman Catholic Church, which is about to assemble in Baltimore, an effort will be made to extend a formal invitation to the Pope to make the United States his home in the event of such a turn in political affairs in Italy as would render his stay in Rome undesirable. It is no secret that the highest ecclesiastical authority in this Diocese is favorable to the proposition, and his views no doubt will influence others.

Several interesting events, of importance to the religious world, are transpiring to-day, but the most noteworthy perhaps is the consecration of Rev. Chauncey Moore Williams, who was elected by the last Episcopal General Convention Missionary Bishop to China and Japan. The ceremony took place in the usual form, at St. John's Chapel, in Varick street.

The following Bishops were in the chancel: Hopkins, of Vermont; McIlvain, Ohio; Williams, Connecticut; Hawks, Missouri; Johns, Virginia; Quintard, Tennessee; Clarkson, Nebraska; McClosky, Michigan; Whittingham, Maryland; Odenheimer, New Jersey; Randall, Columbia, and Whipple, Minnesota. Besides these, there were about one hundred and fifty of the inferior clergy present. The sermon was preached by Bishop Johns, of Virginia, from Mark xvi, 15: "Go ye to all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature."

After the consecration service the House of Bishops went into secret session, for the purpose of electing a Bishop of Nevada, in place of Rev. Dr. Huntington, who declines.

New England Factory Operatives.

J. B. Ham, Esq., who has been appointed by Governor Bullock commissioner to investigate the subject of the employment and education of children in the factories of Massachusetts, addressed a citizens' meeting in Fall River last week in relation to this matter. He stated that he had visited the mills of that city, and had been kindly received by the proprietors, but he was sorry to state that he found a dreadful state of things—the condition of some of the operatives being as bad, if not worse, than formerly existed among the slaves of the South. He spoke of the bad ventilation of some of the mills, the early age at which children were placed in the mills, their deplorable ignorance, their wages, the obligations of the mill owners, and of the opposition of Catholic parents to have their children enter Protestant schools.

An Insane Woman Kills Three of her Children.

The Detroit Tribune has a dispatch from Medina, Lenanoe county, Michigan, dated the 3d, which says: The wife of a man named Robert Simes, in an outburst of insanity, produced a razor and deliberately took the lives of three of her children and of herself. She also made an attempt on the life of a fourth, by cutting its throat and it is not expected to recover, though it was still alive at last accounts. The affair has sent a thrill or horror through the whole community.

IT may be an interesting piece of information to housewives in Pittsburgh, that in Belgium and Holland linen is prepared beautifully, because the washerwomen use refined borax, instead of soda, as a washing powder. One large handful of borax is used to every ten gallons of boiling water, and the saving in soap is said to be one-half. For laces and cambrics an extra quantity is used. Borax does not injure the linen, and it softens the hardest water. A teaspoonful of borax, added to an ordinary sized kettle of hard water, in which it is allowed to boil, will effectually soften the water.

STILL FURTHER TESTIMONY.

In reference to the efficacy of the Rev. E. A. Wilson's great REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION:

UPPER SANDUSKY, September 15, 1866.

MR. FLEMING—SIR: I seat myself to drop you a few lines, to let you know the state of my health. I have had the asthma for some years, and last fall I sent to E. A. Wilson for Dr. Churchill's Preparation for Consumption and Asthma, Scrofula, &c., and I got a package and took it, and it helped me right away. Then I sent with a man to your place and got another package and took that, and I have not had anything of it since, until about three weeks ago, and I have been troubled with it since. So I will send by letter this time, and I want you to send me a package by return mail. I will send the money in this letter.

WANTED.—AGENTS FOR THE PICTORIAL BOOK OF

ANECDOTES AND INCIDENTS

OF THE REBELLION;

Heroic, Patriotic, Romantic, Humorous and Tragical. Splendidly Illustrated with over 300 fine Portraits and Beautiful Engravings.

There is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, and will not get embodied in romance or poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful narratives of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathos, of the war.

These illustrate the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service. From the beginning of the war the author has been engaged in collecting all the anecdotes connected with or illustrative of it, and has grouped and classified them under appropriate heads, and in a very attractive form.

The volume is profusely illustrated with over 300 engravings by the first artists, which are really beautiful; worthy of examination as specimens of art. Many of them are set into the body of the text, after the popular style of Lossing's Pictorial Field Book of the Revolution. The book's contents include reminiscences of camp, picket, spy, scout, bivouac, siege and battlefield adventures; thrilling feats of bravery, wit, drollery, comical and ludicrous adventures, etc., etc.

Amusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit and authentic history, are skilfully interwoven in this work of literary art.

This work sells itself. The people are tired of dry details and partizan works, and want something humorous, romantic and startling. We have agents clearing over $200 per month. Send for circulars and see our terms and proof of the above assertion. Address NATIONAL PUBLISHING CO., 507 Minor St., Philadelphia, Pa. se13-TM&S

WANTED—AGENTS TO CANVASS for the only official Southern History of the War, THE LOST CAUSE. By E. A. Pollard. The public are cautioned against any other publication purporting to be this work. 1,000 AGENTS WANTED.—THE Pictorial Sunday Book, just published, containing accurate descriptions and explanations of the manners and customs of the Eastern nations of antiquity; their strange and curious rites, traditions, ceremonies, implements of warfare; their modes of worship; explanations of many portions of the Old and New Testaments, and passages occurring in the Scriptures; interesting and graphic details of the principal places mentioned in the Bible and ancient history, &c., by Robert Sears. Illustrated by nearly 400 engravings. IT IS ARRANGED FOR SPECIAL READINGS ON EVERY SABBATH OF THE YEAR. For terms, &c., which are very liberal, address CHARLES S. GREENE & CO., Publishers, No. 418 CHESNUT STREET, Philadelphia, Pa. se8-TM

WANTED—BOOK AGENTS—TO canvass for several of the most valuable illustrated works in the country. The books are among the most popular published in the United States, and in the hands of active and intelligent agents, will furnish pleasant and lucrative employment. We would not be understood to at this alone will accomplish all the ends plated by the Church: but we do aver this way these special contributions can e more efficient than in any or all others ed. By devoting these contributions to sionary, Bible, Tract and other benevo erations of the Church, the income to r the single year would be vastly aug . But this is not necessary, as these are already provided for, nor would it the ends contemplated by the call for ecial contributions. Nor would it make r monumental in the true sense of the Indeed it is a question whether the ter ection that must follow would not al ounterbalance the temporary good ac hed. Single congregations and confer ve, in repeated instances, excelled them n their missionary contributions. The till remembered, but the monumental f such contributions are very dim, if at ernable. What has been true in these nstances would be equally true in the That good would be accomplished we deny, but then it must be equally con at embarrassments likewise would fol ile on the other hand, an equal, aye, ater, good would be accomplished, and ther ends more fully secured by the en t of our institutions of learning.

ple instance will illustrate this point. A ation of ten thousand dollars to the en t of one of our institutions of learning ield an income of at least six hundred each year, or in one hundred years, at ration of which the second centennial hurch will be celebrated, of sixty thou llars! Or in other words one hundred d would yield the grand total of six thousand dollars!! and leave the prin untouched. Grant that one-half of this may be necessary to supplement insuf ncome from tuition fees, and yet what esults may be achieved by the remain . Let now the amount be increased to llion, as it should be in the case of at art of our higher institutions of learn instead of six hundred thousand, we have sixty hundred thousand, or six dollars to appropriate to buildings, cabi raries, &c. If it be answered that ulti there would not be need for such vast hen we answer, diminish the tuition bolish them altogether, and throw wide e doors of all our academies, seminaries eges, to all the worthy and deserving f our land. What richer boon to them, obler thank offering to God, what surer e for the permanency of a truly Re form of government.

nent's reflection will convince any one this way can the great objects contem be best secured. The permanency of nstitutions being thus made sure, they ecome in the truest and best sense mon . Belonging to the church at large, and tly increasing in wealth and power, they be constantly increasing connectional That they would add to the efficiency hurch is denied by no one, but perhaps le truth is not apprehended by all. As s or instrumentalities they will be the themselves, a hundred years hence as at the thousands, and hundreds of thou nt forth from their halls in the mean ill, in themselves, be an agency of un wer for good.

Each year witness an increase in our benefactions, est and surest support, however, will be n the development of the intellect and f the Church (the very work accomplish ur institutions of learning) and not by smodic efforts. They moreover come up very year, and should thus come up, as e in themselves a means of growth and h. As the time for making these thank s is drawing near, we would urge a care prayerful examination of these points. ad for the endowment of our institutions ning, and especially in this Conference, dowment of the Pittsburgh Female Col Such endowment is necessary in order, , To make sure the future the present of the college among the literary institu the land. As a historical fact, and t boasting, the statement may be made buildings, faculty, and patronage, the is now the leading ladies' school under re of the M. E. Church, in the United and has but few peers under the care of nomination. To maintain this place is r of the first importance to the Church, our community otherwise a necessity ist for patronizing schools under other , and at distant points. To maintain this n, however, an endowment of at least ndred thousand dollars is absolutely ne . The ordinary and unavoidable ex of maintaining such an institution are ater than are usually supposed. But in n to the ordinary expenses, extraordin ands are made on the college in the ng items:

three items also consume nearly four nd dollars of the yearly income of the The insurance, the repairs, and re cost, on the average, some two thousand more, or an aggregate of nearly six nd dollars. If this be added to the or expenses, it will at once be seen how s the financial burden imposed—all, too, et from the meagre tuition fees—and how , in the majority of instances, the sala d to the teachers. Nothing but sacrifi d economy, and the unparalleled pros f the college for several years past, have it to reach and maintain, even thus far, nt high position. But tuition fees alone be relied upon to maintain this rank. epend upon circumstances, and these y at any time. Epidemic diseases, such visited nearly every part of the land so ly; commercial revulsions, which have ently swept over the country even du last thirty years, depressing business, ng commerce, depleting our schools, ying absolute financial ruin to so many ds of families, and other causes, may n a day, so diminish these tuition fees npel a retrograde movement. The his he literary institutions in the land is dant illustration of this point.

. Such endowment is necessary to en college to take that advanced position he age and the circumstances of the mand. We but repeat a truth which so often that as to crystalize itself dage, when we remark that the present e of progress; of social progress, of rogress, of moral progress; an age of activities and conflicts. The world ith the birththroes of a newer, nobler, life. Humanity is struggling to reach plane, and with a fuller and deeper than ever before, the question "What passes from lip to lip. ough perhaps not an essential, yet ured we but echo the sentiments of tivated minds when we plead for a opriation for an Art Gallery. What to refine and improve the taste, , and, indeed, must be a part of a l education. The æsthetic should ll our systems of education as well the true taste and sound morals are vered. They have for each other a inity. True education is develop is from books, and contact with o Nature and Art. It combines cul rength, polish with solidity. To æsthetic is to accept the marble, but polish; is to have a world of gran huge mountains and measureless oceans, without beautiful plains, pleasant groves, quiet vales, sunny uplands, singing birds and streams of silver sheen. We may be regarded as premature, but we plead for galleries of art in all our institutions of learning, and predict their general introduction not many years hence.

Seventh, As the development of the physical is second only in importance to the mental, there is needed a good Gymnasium, with such appliances as are necessary for a ladies' school. The sanum corpus is essential to the sana mens. To secure the first is to afford a broader basis for the second. The Gymnasium should therefore be a part of every institution of learning. It should be so arranged and supplied as to make necessary exercise, upon the part of the pupil, not only a recreation but a pleasure. With proper appliances grace as well as strength may be acquired, and the hour for physical culture longed for, and not dreaded.

Eighth, As already anticipated, no doubt, by the reader, there must be for these different purposes, suitable buildings, combining public hall, music hall, laboratory, rooms for gymnasium, art gallery, and cabinets. Such a building or buildings, is an urgent need at the present hour. It is, moreover, such a need as must, sooner or later, be met, or the college yield the palm to other institutions, and ignominiously take a lower place. The same spirit which demands an advanced standard of education will prompt men to aspire to the highest of this great and grand achievement. Men will be raised up who, with right views of life, and the proper uses of wealth, of their relations and duties to God and their fellows, and with nobler aspirations than the Alexanders and Bonaparts of this world ever cherished; with an appreciating sense of the true sphere of woman, of her duties and responsibilities, and with a love for the daughters of the land, at least equal to that of the sons, will build and endow for her noble institutions of learning. Mr. Vassar, of New York, has nobly given the key-note in the donation of a half million dollars for the building and endowment of the Institute which bears his name, located at Poughkeepsie, on the Hudson river. Who can estimate the influence that will, in the ages to come, be exerted by that single school, as year after year cultured minds go from its halls to mould the thousands brought under their tuition and influence, and these in their turn, to become new centers, whose widening circles shall one day embrace the continent. These are not mere visions of the imagination. The influence of any single school for a single year, like the lone ray of the morning, may be scarcely perceptible, but their united influences, like those blended rays, will roll back our mental night, and kindle mount, and vale, and sea, with a more than earthly glory.

We argue, as an additional reason for the endowment of the Pittsburgh Female College, and of all our ladies' schools, that woman has a right to expect and demand increased facilities for mental culture. The woman's relations duties and responsibilities, demand the fullest possible mental and moral developement; that the facilities afforded by ladies' schools are inferior to those of well endowed institutions for the other sex; and that no school can attain to a first rank and supply the needed facilities, are uncontrovertible facts, which need no comment, and which ought to be conclusive on this point. We are aware that there are some who deny an education to females, and others who concede it, but to a limited extent only. To all such we reply: Has the Author of our being made woman man's equal? If not, let it be shown. There are others still, who, while they acknowledge the necessity for thorough culture, deny such endowment as would, in time, furnish the necessary appliances. These persons would have them "self-supporting," i. e., the rates for tuition made so high that ample funds could be secured for the erection of buildings and the purchase of apparatus, libraries, cabinets, &c. But why discriminate in favor of the sons as against the daughters? Why not pursue the same policy in regard to schools for both sexes? If right or best in one instance, why not in the other? Why impose such a tax on education, in the case of females, as to virtually close the doors of our institutions against thousands and hundreds of thousands of the most deserving of the land? Daughters, in many instances, of ministers and men of high culture, but limited means.

And has not woman special claims on the Methodist Episcopal Church? Her influence, toils and sacrifices run like a thread of gold through the whole web of the Church's history. The names of Susannah Wesley, Lady Huntingdon, and Barbara Heck, must live while the Church endures, aye, will live, even if the Church should sink from human vision. For a hundred years her counsels have helped to mould the Church's destiny; her tears and toils, and sacrifices, helped to secure the Church's triumphs. Shall her claims now be acknowledged, or shall they modestly be put aside for a hundred years to come? We hope otherwise. Let generous hearts and hands build and endow suitable institutions of learning for our sons and daughters as well, and the millions who shall sit down under the spreading branches of our tree of Methodism a hundred years hence, will be refined, cultured, a power on earth—"our sons as plants grown up in their youth; our daughters as corner stones, polished after the similitude of a palace."

In this aim, God has greatly blessed them. During its entire history the favor of the Holy Spirit has rested upon it.

Steubenville is remarkable for the beauty and healthfulness of its situation, and is easy of access from every direction by the Ohio River and Railroads.

A large Gymnasium, Lewis apparatus, has recently been added to its educational apparatus.

FINANCIAL.

First Mortgage

BONDS

Central

PACIFIC R. R. CO.,

OF CALIFORNIA,

Interest at the Rate of Six per cent. per annum, payable Semi-Annually on the First day of January and July.

Principal and Interest payable in U. S. Gold Coin in the city of New York.

Amount of Issue, $7,336 000

In Coupon Bonds of $1,000 each.

The Bonds have 30 Years to run, and are secured by a First Mortgage, constituting an absolute prior lien on that portion of the Road, Equipments, Franchises, and Entire Property of the Central Pacific Railroad Company, located in the State of California, and extending from Sacramento City to the California State Line, forming a part of the Great Pacific Railroad Route, adopted and aided by the United States Government.

The amount of these First Mortgage Bonds to be issued per mile is limited by law to the amount of United States Bonds allowed and issued to aid the construction of the Road, and the Mortgage by which they are secured is declared by Act of Congress to constitute a lien prior and superior to that of the United States Government.

The aid received from the Government (in amount equal to this First Mortgage) is economically and judiciously applied to the construction and equipment of the Road, together with nearly $7,000,000, received from Stock Subscriptions and other sources. The first Mortgage therefore amounts to but about 35 per cent. of the actual cost and value of the Property which it covers.

The Road is now completed, equipped and running from Sacramento City to Alta, a distance of 73 miles, and the earnings for the three months ending August 1st, were as follows, viz:

MAY, 1866	$65,115 83
JUNE "	67,429 78
JULY "	85,000 00

IN GOLD.

The earnings are steadily increasing, and are estimated at over $100,000 in Gold for the month of August—the official report for that month not having been received at this date.

The construction of the Road is going vigorously forward—24 miles additional being nearly ready for the cars,—and it will probably be in full operation to the California State Line—156 miles from Sacramento City—during the Summer of 1867, when its earnings must be very large, as the entire trade of Nevada, and a large proportion of that of Utah, Idaho and Montana must pass over its line. It has been shown by reliable statistics that in 1863 over $13,000,000 in Gold was paid for freighting goods from California to Nevada alone.

This part of the great Pacific Railroad Route is destined to be one of the most profitable lines of railroad in the world, and its First Mortgage Bonds are among the best secured and most desirable investments ever offered.

Over $1,000,000 has already been expended in grading beyond the point to which the road is now running, and the iron is bought and paid for sufficient to lay the track the entire distance to the State Line.

The Road has been completed and equipped thus far without the sale of a single dollar of its First Mortgage Bonds, and they are now offered to the public for the first time, after the earnings of the Road have reached the sum of $100,000 per month in Gold, only about 25 per cent. of which is required for operating expenses.

The Bonds are offered at 95 per cent. and accrued interest from July 1st, in Currency. Orders may be forwarded to us direct, or through the principal Banks and Bankers in all parts of the country.

Remittances may be made in drafts on New York, or in Legal Tender Notes, National Bank Notes, or other funds current in this city, and the Bonds will be forwarded to any address by Express, free of charge. Inquiries for further particulars, by mail or otherwise will receive punctual attention.

The following is the list of assessments for the year 1866 in the various districts of Allegheny county, as compiled from the records of the County Commissioner's office. The Assessor in Collins township failed to return the personal assessments last year, but did so this year, which accounts for the large number of assessments set opposite that township. The assessments in Lower St. Clair township include the borough of Mount Washington. The Assessors for the borough of West Elizabeth and East Deer township have not yet made their returns to the Commissioner. The following is the list:

Criminal Court—No Jury Trials Next Week.

[illegible] y morning at the [illegible] usiness was trans[illegible] e Commonwealth [illegible] for attempting to break into the dwelling of James Marshall, Esq., returned a verdict of not guilty, ordering the county to pay the costs.

Wm. Johnston, the youth who was convicted last week on two indictments for larceny, was brought into Court for sentence. The first charge was for stealing a watch from a man named John Gordon. The second was for picking the pocket of a Mr. McMillan, of a pocketbook containing fifty dollars, at the corner of Penn and St. Clair streets, on the night of the President's reception. Young Johnston stated that he was only fifteen years of age, and came from New York city, where his parents reside, only a short time before this occurred; that he was the son of respectable parents, who had raised him properly. During the war he was engaged in selling papers in the Second Corps, Army of the Potomac. Since that time he had fallen in with bad company who had led him into this difficulty. He also produced letters from his parents and sister, dated New New York city. General A. L. Pearson being in court, here remarked that he remembered of seeing Johnston selling papers, thus confirming that part of the statement. While he was making the above statement he seemed deeply affected and wept bitterly. The Court then sentenced him as follows: On charge of pocket-picking, to undergo one year imprisonment, and for stealing a watch, two years; making in all three years in the Western Penitentiary.

Henry Lampus was placed upon trial on an indictment for false pretences on oath of Wm. Nethercoat. The charge was not fully established, and the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, but ordered the defendant to pay the costs.

Michael Mattern, proprietor of the Sweitzer Hall, in the Fifth ward, was then tried on an indictment for committing an assault and battery upon officer William Wilson, of the night watch. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty, and the Court sentenced him to pay a fine of thirty dollars and costs.

Tilley Potter was arraigned on a charge of false pretenses, J. C. Shields prosecutor. The parties reside in Lawrenceville. The prosecutor alleges that the defendant agreed to erect a building with the necessary materials, for $875, and after the completion of the building, Potter presented a number of receipts, purporting to be genuine, to the amount of $875. Potter afterwards sent in another bill, and demanded its payment. Jury out.

Martin Conlon was tried on a charge of stealing an empty oil barrel from Wormser, Myers & Co. He was found guilty and sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary.

Arthur Scnitz, of Mifflin township, plead guilty to two charges of selling liquor without license. He was remanded to jail for sentence.

Bernard Higgins, who was convicted a few days since of the larceny of a watch, was sentenced to four month's imprisonment in the county jail.

Thomas Johnson, convicted of stealing a horse from J. J. Zimmerman, at the Iron City Park, was sentenced to undergo an imprisonment of three years in the Western Penitentiary.

Court then adjourned. Jury trials will not be resumed until next Monday week, on account of the election during the coming week.

Methodist Protestant.

On Sabbath a new and most beautiful suburban church was dedicated at Belleview, some four miles out of Allegheny city, on the New Brighton road. Although the enterprise was inaugurated by a union of several denominations, the Methodist Protestants were permitted to finish the work, and by the consent of the donors, to make it one of their regular conference appointments. Revs. J. D. Herr, H. D. Moore and J. B. Clark preached morning, afternoon and evening respectively, to crowded congregations. Their sermons are spoken of as eminently appropriate to the glad occasion. Some $1,300 were subscribed to pay off the last indebtedness for the house. Rev. Dr. Reeves will preach in this church to morrow.

The Methodist Protestant churches of Pittsburgh and Allegheny have all secured the services of their former pastors, by appointment of last conference a few days ago, except the First Church, Fifth street, whose pastor, Rev. John Cowl, was elected President of the Conference. Rev. Alex. Clarke, of Cincinnati, is appointed to this charge, and will preach to morrow morning and evening at the usual hours.

This denomination is contributing liberally to the centenary fund for educational and church extension purposes, and in proportion to her numbers, will probably do as much as the M. E. Church, whose contributors will be more than in any five years before.

New Furnishing Store for Gentlemen.

New business houses are springing up in our midst every day, and among the most prominent we note that of the Messrs. Murdoch & Putnam, the already well known proprietors of the gentlemen's furnishing store near the COM[illegible] [illegible] assortment of goods in the market are unsurpassed. Their gentlemen's linen goods are now preferred, and the orders are rapidly increasing. All the variety and style of goods designed for gentlemen's wear will be found at either of their stores, and at prices to suit the masses. As leaders of the fashion in this line, it is only necessary to add that they are established before the public, and the reputation of their goods is known throughout this section.

Health of the City.

Dr. George L. McCook, Physician to the Board of Health, reports the interments in this city for the week ending September 30th, at twenty-nine. The following were the diseases: Asiatic cholera, four; alcoholic exhaustion, one; apoplexy, one; albumaria, one; accident, one; cancer, one; congestion of lungs, two; convulsions, three; consumption, one; cholera infantum, one; croup, one; debility, one; dropsy, one; dropsy of heart, one; disease of heart, one; enteritis, one; gastro enteritis, one; hanging, one; hydro-pneumothorax, one; old age, one; unknown, one. Of the above there were four under one year; two between one and two years; one from two to five; one from fifteen to twenty; four from twenty to thirty; four from thirty to forty; five from forty to fifty; four from fifty to sixty; one from sixty to seventy, and three from seventy to eighty. This is the largest mortality list that has been published for some time, and should warn our citizens to exercise more than usual caution in regard to their health.

Endowment of Pittsburgh Female College.

On the third page of this morning's issue of the COMMERCIAL will be found a very interesting article on the "True Intent of the Centenary Celebration," by Dr. I. C. Pershing. While treating briefly on the importance of education as necessary to the progress and efficiency of the Church, the Doctor makes an elaborate and eloquent plea in behalf of the endowment of the Pittsburgh Female College, an institution which is now the leading ladies' school in the United States, and whose established prosperity city and native pride should compel our people to see to. We commend Dr. Pershing's article to our readers and ask for it attentive perusal.

Grand National Concert Next Thursday.

The National Concert for the benefit of the Soldiers' National Orphans' Home Fund, under the auspices of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Union of Washington, D. C., will take place next Thursday, at Grover's Theatre, Washington. Immediately after the concert the awards of gifts will be made on the stage, in presence of the audience, by a committee appointed from their number. John W. Pittock, the general agent for this city, has a few tickets remaining unsold, which will doubtless be disposed of to-day. As the time is short, those who desire to aid the Orphans' Home Fund, should secure tickets without delay.

LARCENY OF A WATCH.—A colored man named George Brown, was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of stealing a silver watch from John Wolf, on the previous night. When taken to the Mayor's office, Brown denied all knowledge of the missing article, but upon being pressed, admitted that he had stolen it, and pawned it at Cimmiotti's, on Smithfield street, for $8. He also produced the pawn ticket, and an officer succeeded in recovering the watch. The accused was committed to jail, in default of $300 bail, to answer the charge at Court.

JEWELRY AND WATCHES AT WHOLESALE.—We direct the attention of jewelers and dealers in watches and clocks to the card in another column of Messrs. Scott & Henneger, No. 31 Fifth street, second floor. This firm has had many years experience in this important branch of trade, and therefore are prepared to offer to the public none but the best goods, all of which they guarantee. Country as well as city dealers will find it to their advantage to give them a call.

THE LATE PITTSBURGH GIFT ENTERPRISE.—We have repeatedly informed our readers that we know nothing of the whereabouts of Messrs. Thomson, McDonald & Co., the proprietors of the late gift enterprise, yet we continue to receive letters of inquiry. The last heard of the firm, Mr. Thomson was endeavoring, as he said, to clear up his affairs, when he would resume the distribution of gifts. All we know is that he has forfeited his bail, and made tracks for parts unknown.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

FRIDAY, October 5—P. M.

The New York quotations received at noon to-day, at S. S. Bryan's Stock Rooms, show a rise in Five-twenties and a slight advance in some of the other series. Railways appear a little checked in their upward bound, but not sufficient to cause any uneasiness among operators, except in Erie, which broke suddenly from 95½ to 89¾ within an hour—the rest of the market being but little affected. Gold is quoted at 149; Eighty-ones, 101¾; Five-twenties, 112⅝; new do, 109⅝; Ten-forties, 99¼; Seven-thirties, 106; Michigan Southern, 89⅝; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 90⅝; Fort Wayne, 108; Erie, 90⅜; Chicago and Rock Island, 107⅜; Chicago and Northwestern, 44⅛; and the preferred stock, 73⅜. Mining stocks are quoted as follows: Bennehoff, 6⅝; Gregory, 15⅛; Rocking, 5⅛; Quartz, 6⅝; Hope, 2¼; Corydon, 6⅝; United States oil stock, 7¾.

—There was less activity in the dry goods market to-day, in New York, owing partly to the sharp advance in prices during the three days past, and partly to the absence of leading makes of goods from the jobbers' shelves. Brown domestics are a peg higher, with but few descriptions to be had at any price. Drillings are active for export. Prints and print cloths are very firm. For all leading styles of foreign goods the demand continues steady.

In Philadelphia, the dry goods market has quickened decidedly within the last few days, at a considerable advance in prices—especially for heavy goods. This movement is attributed almost wholly to the recent advance in cotton, which, at first, manufacturers seemed loth to accept as anything permanent or important, until Monday, when the favorable news from Liverpool and the rise in gold, with the light receipts and continued unfavorable reports from the coming crop, indicated a probability that the price of cotton must be higher. Some spinners were convinced of the fact last week, and purchased large lots on Friday and Saturday. The advance is fully five cents per pound for New Orleans since Saturday last. So large and sudden a rise has its effect very quickly upon the class of goods sold close to manufacture, and an advance in the price of these goods was absolutely necessary. Lighter makes of goods, of which there are yet fair stocks on hand, and the price of which has been relatively higher, are as yet offered at former prices, and holders are anxious to dispose of them; so that the higher price of cotton has thus far only affected the goods which are sold close up to production. Brown domestics of standard and heavy makes are higher, with no stocks on hand. Jobbers are not advancing prices quite as fast as the agents, as they hold some stocks of goods, and of course, a smaller advance enables them to add to their profits.

PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKETS.

(Pittsburgh Commercial's Report.)

SATURDAY, October 7, 1866.—Trade continues dull, with but a moderate demand for the leading articles. Buyers take hold cautiously; for some cause best known to themselves their faith in the present figures is not very strong. The weather is all that could be desired for outdoor trade. Our rivers are again approaching low water mark. Whilst some of the large packets will lay up, others will go out with a medium trip in order to keep their crews together. Produce—There was a large falling off in the receipts during the past five days. This fact has increased the confidence of holders, who have advanced the figures in certain descriptions. Flour continues very firm, with a good demand for home purposes, with the advantage of the market on the side of holders. The stock in first hands is not large. Yesterday's receipts were 1,258 barrels by river and rail. The week's receipts to date were 9,246 barrels. Grain—Increased firmness was perceptible in the market owing principally to the light stock on hand and the limited receipts. Wheat very firm. The receipts were four car loads. Corn firm; no receipts. Oats commanded the outside rates. Receipts only 71 sacks. Rye improving; two car loads were the receipts. Barley—The receipts reach 370 sacks. Cheese was very firm, the stock in the market being very limited. Below will be found the sales which came under our notice:

HOPS—The old crop is nearly exhausted; the nominal rates were 35@40c ₩ lb. The new crop is beginning to arrive. The opening rates are; Prime western, 65@75c; prime New York State, 65@75c ₩ lb.

FEED—The market continues very firm, with a good demand; sales 150 sacks seconds, $1 45, on wharf. 50 sacks middlings on wharf, $1 85. Bran—sales 3 cars, 98c.

SWEET POTATOES—The receipts have fallen off, leaving a better feeling in the market. Sales 25 barrels, at $4 75@5 00 ₩ barrel.

HAY—The receipts were moderate, with a firm market; sales 75 bales on the wharf, $22; sales 12 loads at the scales at $20@25 ₩ ton.

BUTTER—The supply being limited, the market was very firm at the advance we have previously noted. Sales 12 packages roll, 33@35c; 15 do very choice, 36@38c. These prices will soon increase the supply and diminish the exports.

APPLES—Dull, with more sellers than buyers; prices were weak, and could only be obtained for small parcels. The receipts by rail were 253 barrels, whilst the sales did not exceed 100 barrels, at $3 00@4 00 per bbl.

FLOUR—Was firm, with a liberal demand. This however, is no new information to the general reader that being the situation of the market for some time. The receipts since our last were 1,258 barrels. The receipts for five days ending last evening were 9,246 barrels. We note moderate sales at the following prices: Extra family Winter Wheat $13 00@13 50—the latter for choice brands. Spring Wheat, sales were made at $12 00@12 50 per bbl.

RYE FLOUR—The market was steady but not very active. Small sales were made at $6 50@6 75 ₩ bbl. The stock on hand is not large.

FLAXSEED—Buyers have changed their minds; they are willing to purchase at $3 00 ₩ bush.

CHEESE—We continue to notice a firm market, with a good demand for local purposes. The previous advance has been sustained. The railroad receipts during the past 24 hours were 110 boxes. Among the sales were the following: 40 boxes W. R. at 17a18c; 30 do, Hamburg, 18a19c, and small sales Goshen.

GRAIN—We have to notice a firm market, with a good demand. Corn—Sales of 1,000 bush. to arrive, at 90c; 2 cars ear do at 9[illegible]c. Oats—Market very firm, owing to light receipts. Sales of 1 car at depot, 47c, and 300 bush do at Elevator at 48c. Rye—Sales of 1 car old Chicago at Elevator at $1 00 ₩ bush. Barley nominal at $1 10. Wheat was very firm and scarce; in the absence of sales we omit figures.

WHISKY is in fair demand. Sales of 20 bbls city rectified at $2 35 ₩ gallon.

BACON—The market was dull. Sales were limited at previous prices.

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

[Pittsburgh Commercial's Report.]

SATURDAY, October 6.—The oil market remains firm, with a good demand. Prices, however, were unchanged. Bulk, 14c; bbls included, 19c. The entire sales reach 5,000 bbls, all for this market, except 2,000 bbls destined for the East. The stock on hand is not as large as many would suppose, as it required so large an amount to fill the previous contracts. The river receipts exhibit a large falling off. Fisher & Bro. received 1,700 bbls. The sales were as follows: 500 bbls bulk, 14c; 500 do on landing, 14c, bbls returned; 2,000 bbls, and bulk, 14c, bbls returned; 2,000 bbls free, on board cars, at 20c, this being an advance.

REFINED OIL.—The market during the forenoon was moderately firm. About noon a dispatch was received that prices had declined. This caused buyers to hold off. The only sales that came under our notice were 500 barrels Standard white, Philadelphia, immediate, 43½c; 500 barrels December delivery, Philadelphia, B. O., 42½c; 500 barrels November delivery on the spot. The terms were private. Other lots were under negotiation.

PETROLEUM MARKETS.

THE OIL REGION.

Our advices from Titusville represent the excitement of Tuesday as having subsided—the Pittsburgh barges having supplied their immediate wants. Pittsburgh barges were largely in the market on Tuesday, fearing a fall in the river before their wants were supplied. This had a stimulating tendency on the figures, and holders were firm at a slight advance on the quotations of the previous day. We note sales of 2,200 barrels, Bull Run, at $3 80; 500 barrels same place $3 85; 1,000 barrels, Bennehoff, at $3 90; 4,000 barrels, Pioneer, in lots, at from $3 75 to $4 00; 1,000 barrels, Stevenson Farm at $3 00; and some small lots of Pioneer, at from $3 50 to $4 00—according to gravity.

On Wednesday sales were made as follows: 300 bbls Bull Run at $3 80; 500 bbls same place at $4 00; 300 bbls Pioneer, sold under pressure at $3 00.

The Herald says: "Eastern buyers generally, are holding off. On the other hand, holders do not seem willing to make any concession in order to effect sales. We heard of some large lots offered at $4 00, but eastern buyers do not consider themselves justified in taking hold at that price.

"The weather continues propitious for out door business. The roads are in a better condition for teaming than they have been for some time. The creek is steadily receding and is now almost too low for boating purposes."

The amount of oil shipped from Pioneer, by railroad, for the month of September, was 4,832 bbls, and 401 tank cars, containing 40,753 bbls.

PHILADELPHIA.

In Philadelphia the market continues inactive. Small sales are making at from 24½ to 25c for crude; 42½ to 43c for refined, in bond, and 59 to 61c per gallon for free, as to quality. Up to the first of the present month, sixteen ships, seventy-six barks, thirty-three brigs, and three schooners, laden entirely with this staple of Pennsylvania, have cleared for foreign countries from Philadelphia. These vessels took 18,231,983 gallons. The total export from the United States the present year, amount to 44,853,345 gallons, against 15,512,240 gallons same time last year.

NEW YORK.

The New York market continues moderately active at 25½ to 26½c for crude, 42½ to 44½c for refined, in bond, and 57 to 61c for free per gallon.

Weekly Review of the Pig Iron and Bloom Market.

(Pittsburgh Commercial's report.)

SATURDAY, October 6, 1866.—The business of the week in crude irons has been comparatively light. Stocks of desirable brands are much reduced and sales necessarily contracted. Chicago Live Stock Market.

October 4.—The receipts of cattle yesterday were 2,149 head, and entered sales 1,754 head. Entered sales for the week 2,859 head. The receipts since Sunday morning were 4,189 head. There was, yesterday, a good attendance of buyers of all kinds shippers, feeders, packers and city butchers, and under a healthy competition prices were thoroughly sustained, and for good shipping grades, ruled a shade higher. There was a fair inquiry for first and second class steers, and holders and drovers answering this description, experienced no difficulty in closing out at full rates. Prices ranged as follows: From $4 00a5 50 for rough stock steers, cows, bulls and stags and light heifers, to good fat butchers' steers and choice steers averaging from 707 to 1,025 lbs, and $6 00a7 30 for fair to good, fat shipping cattle averaging from 1,100 to 1,188 lbs. The market closes steady, with about 4,000 head unsold.

Hogs—The market opened dull and up to 12 o'clock comparatively little was accomplished in the way of sales. The views of buyers and sellers were apart. The former in view of the advanced freights were generally demanding concessions of from 10a25c ₩ 100 lbs, [illegible] a trifle lower, and a brisk trade sprang up at the above decline. About 5,500 head changed hands at a range of $8 75 for common grades averaging 238 lbs, fed and watered, to $9 50 for choice hogs averaging 239 lbs, fed and watered. Most of the offerings were taken for New York and Boston.

The market closes steady with nearly all sold.

Provision Markets.

In Cincinnati mess pork sold at $32 75 to a fair extent, and one small sale was made at $33. The latter is a shade but not more than the former can be realized to any extent. Lard would sell at 19c, but is held at 19½a19¾c. Bulk meats are firmer and hardly to be had at less than 14½a16½c for shoulders and sides, though the demand is being supplied at 14½a15a16c. Bacon is also firmer; shoulders are held at 16½a16¾c; sides at 18½a18¾c, but these figures have little or no practical support. Clear sides sell at 20½, 20¾, and 21c. Hams are steady as heretofore quoted. The length of time that meat may have been packed is an important element in its value.

In Louisville holders are firm, mess pork being held at $32 50. Bacon is steady, with sales of 40 casks shoulders at 16¾c; 5 do clear rib sides at 20c; 10 do clear sides 20½c; sugar-cured hams 21½a25c, plain hams in canvass, 20c. Breakfast bacon 24c. Lard is dull, with sales of tierces at 18½c; prime leaf 21½a22½c.

Mess pork has declined to $34 50, with but a moderate demand.

Lard is dull at 19a20c.

Bacon is dull, and the demand confined to the local trade. Shoulders declined to 17½c; sides remain at 21c, and clear sides at 21¾c.

Corn is firm at 80a85c.

Oats are in good demand, and prices advancing. Prime 55c.

Hay is dull at $27 50.

Cotton is in good demand, and prices 2a3c higher, closing at 42c for middling. Receipts, 254 bales; stock in port, 86,000.

The Crops in Utah.

From Utah we learn that the crops of wheat, oats, and barley are generally good; in a few places they have been injured by the rust, owing to the wet. Potatoes will give an exceedingly liberal yield. The hay crop is large beyond all precedent, and $10 per ton will be about the average price. Last year the rate was $100 per ton. Prices will be low: flour sells at $5a 8 per barrel; wheat and barley in proporion; the price of potatoes is nominal.

Whisky Markets.

In Cincinnati the demand is fair for bonded, with sales of 300 barrels at 33c. Free is dull and not salable to any extent at over $2 32, though small transactions were recorded.

In Louisville holders are firm, though the market is somewhat unsettled. Quoted $2 32½a2 33.

Flour and Grain Going East.

The Eastward movement of Flour and Grain through Buffalo from the West, from January 1 to October 1, this year, as compared with last, shows a decrease of 420,604 barrels of Flour and an increase of 3,011,579 bushels of Grain.

THE GOLD MARKET

was stronger towards the close of the day, and the price was run up to 149⅞a149¾.

EXCHANGE.

The market for exchange remains very dull, and rates are weaker. Prime bankers' bills are quoted at 108.

GOVERNMENT SECURITIES.

There was an active demand on the Government Securities this evening, partly on account of the favorable exhibition of the public debt statement, and there was a general improvement in prices. The 5-20 bonds were the favorites, and the market closed as follows: [illegible] 99⅝a100¼; 10-40 coupons, 99⅛a99½; July 7-30s, 106a106½.

THE STOCK MARKET

At the last open board was heavy, and there was a general decline in prices. After the call New York Central suddenly became the leading favorite, and broke down to 112⅝, but afterwards rallied to 113¼. This large falling off is due to the heavy realization of some large holders, although nominally on a report of no extra dividend. The decline in New York Central caused a general depression in the market, and the entire list was lower. The market was very feverish, and fluctuated almost every minute, making it difficult to get any correct quotations. Fort Wayne has been very steady all day, and has not declined with the balance of the list. The Chicago and Great Western shares have advanced to 51, and the dealings in them have become quite general.

MINING STOCKS,

At the afternoon board the market was generally steady, with an advance on some shares. Walkill Lead continues the great feature of the list and over 15,000 shares changed hands from 264 down to 250, closing at 235 bid. Consolidated Gregory was in demand and rose to 16 25. Bullion Consolidated was also in request, and sold up to 459 closing with no stock offering under 480.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, October 5.—Money market steady and unchanged. Sterling dull at 107¾a108¼. Gold active and firmer, opening at 148¾, declining to 148⅝, and advanced to 149⅝, closing at 149¾. Government stocks ¼a½c better. Freights to Liverpool quiet and without decided change. Stocks dull; Rock Island 107⅜; Illinois Central, 128; Northwestern, 42; do preferred, 73; Toledo, 122⅝; Fort Wayne, 108⅝; Marietta and Cincinnati, 41; preferred, 44; New York Central, 116; Hudson, 122⅝; Reading 116⅛; Michigan Central 114; Michigan Southern, 89⅝; Alton and Terre Haute preferred, 78; Western Union Telegraph, 54⅝; Ohio and Mississippi certificates, 33⅝; Virginia 6s, 45⅝; Missouri 6s, 79⅝; Tennessee 6s, 72⅝; Treasury 7-30s 106⅝; 6s, '81, coupons, 112⅝; 5-20 coupons '65, 109⅝. Gold, 149⅝.

The Commercial's money article says: The extreme activity in stocks combined with the outflow of currency westward, have slightly affected the tone of the money market. Some lenders are holding back their funds with a view to putting up the rate to-morrow, and the exceptions at 5 per cent. on call are quite numerous. The general rate, however, continues to be 4 per cent. Discounts are unchanged, prime bills being current at 5a6 per cent. The continued firmness in gold keeps exchange dull, and the rates are rather weak. Foreign bankers are buying 5-20s more freely, and the presumption that the purchases are made with a view to shipments causes some parties to defer buying bills. Prime bankers', 60 day sterling, is quoted at 108 francs, long date, 5.21¼. The downward tendency in stocks started yesterday afternoon was continued at the morning board. On most of the leading stocks there was a considerable amount of realizing, especially on Pittsburgh and Cleveland and Northwestern. In Erie there was some demand for cash stock, in which a difference of ¼ was paid. Governments are in active demand from foreign bankers, and prices are higher. 5-20's of '62 rose ½. There is a decided scarcity of gold for delivery, and the loans are made at ¼ to ⅜ per cent. per day.

The Post's money article says: The Loan market is unchanged. Call loans are made at 4a5 per cent., and discounts at 5a6, with few bills offering, the demand being in excess of the supply. Stocks are irregular, and opened with much less of excitement. Governments are firmer. Considerable purchases are making of 5-20's of 1862, by speculative foreign firms. The price of these bonds has gone up to 112⅝. Coupons of 1865 are also active at 10[illegible]. 10-40's have advanced to 99⅝, and 7-30's are dull but steady at 106. Railroads are generally lower, and there is a strong disposition to sell. Erie before the board rose as high as 92 and closed at 90¾. The opening price at the board, 91, was the highest price, the transactions being about 7,000 shares. Northwestern was also freely offered and sold at 74, down to 73½. The common stock was firmer, and advanced from 42½a43. Of Pittsburgh 4,000 shares sold at 89½a 89⅞. Fort Wayne, Toledo and Michigan Southern transactions were large. After the board the quotations were: New York Central, 111; Erie, 91½; Hudson, 122⅝; Reading, 116⅝; Michigan Central 113½; Michigan Southern 89⅝; Northwestern, 41; Chicago and Rock Island, 107⅝; Ohio and Mississippi certificates, 34⅝; Cumberland, 53¾.

NEW YORK, October 5.—At the close of the 4 o'clock board the following were reported: New York Central 118; Erie, 89⅝; Reading, 116; Michigan Southern, 87⅝; Pittsburgh, 89; Northwestern 42½; Northwestern, preferred, 73½.

New York Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, October 5.—The dry goods market opened firm and fairly active this morning notwithstanding the market for raw material is again dull and declining. There is less tendency to higher prices, but as most leading goods are in short supply and the stock daily diminishing, prices will not be lower immediately.

THE RIVER.—Last evening at twilight the marks indicated three feet six inches and falling. The weather was clear.

THE W. A. Caldwell, Capt. Woodburn, left for Arkansas River direct, with a good trip.

THE fine packet Glasgow, Capt. G. W. Johnson, is announced for Cincinnati and Louisville. She will have dispatch.

THE Wheeling and Parkersburg packet for this day is the Grey Eagle, Captain Gordon. She leaves at noon, and persons going that way will be well cared for.

THE following steamers were advertised to leave Cincinnati for this port: America, Yorktown, Argosy, Kate Robinson and Kate Putnam.

WE were misinformed in regard to the Kenton and Ezra Porter. Instead of waiting for a rise, they will both leave as announced. We regret the mistake, the fault was not ours.

THE fine packet Rob Roy, Captain C. Beers, leaves for Cincinnati, Louisville and St. Louis, this day 5 P. M. This boat is well found in every respect, and is in charge of experienced officers.

THE fine packet Robert Moore, in charge of Commodore Carr, leaves to-day at 9 A. M. for Portsmouth and intermediate ports. This boat has unsurpassed accommodations and is in charge of careful and attentive officers.

THE fine packet Bertha, Captain Piersel, is announced for St. Louis. She will leave in turn. This boat is well found in every respect and is in charge of careful and experienced officers. Persons who have traveled on her speak in flattering terms of her appointments.

THE first class freight packet, and one of the best ever built, is the "R. C. Gray," Capt. W. B. Anderson. This boat has great speed and superior passenger accommodations, and is already a favorite with shippers. This, however, is always the case where Captain Anderson controls matters. Do not forget she takes her departure for Cincinnati and Louisville this day. Hurry along the freight.

THE new and splendid sidewheel packet Ezra Porter, Capt. J. H. Porter, leaves on Tuesday, October 9 positively, for Memphis, Vicksburg and New Orleans. This boat is one of the best of her class. She was built regardless of expense, expressly for the New Orleans and Red River trade. Captain Porter is well and favorably known, and all who have ever traveled with him are loud in his praise. Don't forget the time; so get ready for a trip to the Sunny South.

THE splendid passenger steamer Kenton, Capt. Frank Maratta, is receiving for Cairo and St. Louis, and will leave this evening. To persons going that way, the present will be found an excellent opportunity. The Kenton is one of the best boats afloat, and Capt. Maratta is a large favorite with passengers and shippers. The first clerk is Mr. Walter C. Dunlap. He is an excellent officer and a clever gentleman.

THE packet Fayette, Captain Cox, has laid up for repairs. Her place will be supplied by the fine packet Franklin, Captain Carmack. This boat has been placed in thorough and complete repair. Captain Carmack is an officer of large experience and pleasing address. We take pleasure in recommending boat and officers. Our young friend Jerry Carmack will be found in the office. He is a clever and attentive officer.

THE Fayette has laid up for a short time to undergo thorough and complete repairs. She will be soon on the track again in a brand new suit. Captain Cox, during the time he was engaged in the Geneva trade, has made hosts of friends. He is decidedly one of the sharpest, shrewdest and most accomplished boatmen that comes to this port. What the Captain don't understand about steamboating is not worth learning.

Cincinnati.

October 4.—We condense the following from the Enquirer:

The weather yesterday was clear and warm, with the thermometer at seventy-four degrees in the shade at two P. M. in the afternoon.

The river at this point is falling rapidly, with scant twenty-seven feet in the channel at six o'clock last evening. It had fallen fully two feet during the previous twenty-four hours.

Business on the landing was active yesterday, especially about the gangway of the popular steamer Robert Burns, loading for Memphis. The local packets were all doing their usual amount of business for the season of the year.

The Maggie Hays came in from New Orleans yesterday at 7 P. M., with fair trip of freight.

THE STARLIGHT.—The stern wheel steamer Starlight was sold at St Louis Thursday, by the Sheriff, to this port Harton, for $3,800.

The Lorena turned over her Memphis freight to the steamer Robert Burns, and will prospect for a trade for the present.

The Sheridan, in command of Capt. Jonathan Crane, is loading for Memphis and Arkansas River, and will take all freight for above points and leave Saturday next. Mr. Alex Havlin has charge of the office. Shippers will bear in mind she takes freight for lower Ohio and Memphis.

The Commercial, of the same date, says:

The Belle Vernon passed down from Pittsburgh, for St. Louis, with a full cargo. The Pine Grove also arrived from Pittsburgh; Nora, from Marietta; Cottage No. 2 from the Kanawha; America and Kate Putnam, from St. Louis; and Maggie Hays, from New Orleans, were among the arrivals. The Fleetwood, for Pomeroy; Belle Vernon, for St. Louis; Robert Burns, for Memphis, and Monsoon, for New Orleans, departed, with fair trips.

JEFFERSONVILLE, INDIANA, October 3.—There is seven feet six inches over the Falls, and falling. The Huntsville and Superior passed up. The tugs Neville and O. K. came down. Clear and cool. Business on the Louisville wharf is quite dull.

EVANSVILLE, October 3.—The weather is cloudy and cool, with a smoky atmosphere. The river has fallen two feet during the past twenty-four hours. Outside arrivals to-day—Champion, Cincinnati to St. Louis; Liberty No. 4, St. Louis to Pittsburgh; Blue Wing, New Orleans to Cincinnati; Louisville, Cincinnati to New Orleans. The Champion had the hull of the Eleanora Carrel in tow to Cairo for a wharf boat, and a big trip on herself. The Louisville and Liberty were full. The Plain City came out of Green river with a few dead head merchants; no freight. The J. W. Gaff goes to the Cumberland. The Phantom, Capt. Hodge Brown, goes into the Tennessee river trade.

Cairo.

October 3.—The following is our port list for the past 24 hours:

Greenback, Pittsburgh and return; Big Horn, St Louis to Johnsonville; Sam Orr, Evansville and return. The Salvor dropped down to the wharfboat to-day, and discharged considerable quantity of freight recovered from the wreck of the Gilmore.

The Greenback brought down Mr. W. Milner Roberts and party, who have been making a survey of the Ohio river, with a view to its improvement, as ordered by Congress. Mr. Roberts has gone to St. Louis, and will meet the Greenback at Evansville, for which point she started at noon. The estimated length of the Ohio river, according to Mr. Robert's statement, is 1,000 miles.

Louisville.

October 4.—We condense the following from the Courier:

The river was falling slowly yesterday, with 10 feet 6 inches water in the canal, in the evening, by the mark. During the previous twenty four hours it had fallen only two inches at the head of the falls, and six inches at Portland. The weather was cloudy in the morning, but clear in the evening, with the thermometer at 75° in the shade.

On the falls there were 7½ feet steamboat water last evening, and eight feet ten inches in the pass down Indian chute.

Four barges of Pomeroy coal, belonging to Capt. Dugan, that had been torn loose from their moorings by the tow boat Little Alps, were caught near Leavenworth by the Sandy Valley and safely landed. They were at the tow head above the falls, and made the trip down over the falls without either pilot or crew.

The rates to Red river were materially advanced, as follows: To Shreveport, one dollar and fifty cents per barrel; to Jefferson, one dollar and fifty cents and two dollars per barrel.

Saint Louis.

October 3.—We condense the following from the Democrat:

Fifteen thousand visitors to the Fair Grounds yesterday, and fifteen thousand expected to arrive last night and to-day, by river and rail. We hear of boats coming from the Illinois and Upper Mississippi crowded with people. The river is steadily declining here. Hence to Keokuk the decline is rapid, throwing boats and packet lines into disorder. The Illinois is down to seven feet in the channel, and falling very slowly. The Missouri is steadily falling. The improvement at St. Paul amounts to little. It is painfully apparent that our St. Paul packets will for another spell exchange trips at the lower rapids. The Pembina has gone North again from the rapids, having exchanged with the Burlington. Business on the rivers is rapidly improving. About ten boats were expected last night and to-day from the Illinois and Upper Mississippi, with four or five thousand tons of produce. Memphis and New Orleans packets got every pound of freight yesterday they wanted. Weather very fine, and country roads getting in excellent condition.

The Louisville Democrat has the following:

The Cairo Democrat, of Sunday, snoots the following gun at the Louisville Courier man for blowing his bugle about something he knows very little, if anything, about:

The Courier man says "the Pittsburgh boat necessarily requires heavy shafts, and must have very high steam." If his favorite, the Richmond, is as large as the Great Republic, she will certainly require shafts as strong, if she is to be as fast, and if he knew anything about the application of the power of steam to a shaft, he would know that thirty pounds pressure of steam in a boiler can be made to supply as great a strain on a shaft by a low pressure engine as one hundred and twenty pounds by a high pressure engine, and further, that a steamer is not compelled to carry "very high steam" because she is a high pressure boat, for any engineer can tell him that by enlarging the capacity of the cylinders, a high pressure boat will run fully as fast with a pressure of seventy-five pounds to the square inch in her boiler, as she can with proportionately smaller cylinders and a pressure of one hundred and fifty pounds to the square inch.
